Happy holidays!!

I will use this phrase during the summer when many of us are lucky enough to have time off work or are able to enjoy a trip with family and friends. It is not a substitute for 'Happy (or Merry) Christmas'. Oh dear! I seem to have let my 'grumpy old lady' out. So, back to the holiday season...

As I write, I am travelling the beautiful East Coast train line with my daughter. It is a journey we have done several times recently as we tour university Open Days with growing excitement for her future endeavours. Today however, we are travelling to visit my sister and our anticipation is the colour (pink or blue) of the new addition to our family, who will hopefully make an appearance before we have to head back over the border to England. This will be my sister's third grandchild, my sixth great niece or nephew.

It is not always easy to be patient when something great is on the horizon. We had to leave before the grand event, however, we got to spend time with my sister and my wonderful niece and her very cute son: a good reminder to be grateful for your blessings rather than constantly wishing for more! I can now tell you that we now have a very symmetrical three great nephews and three great nieces! All are well and home safely. We are so fortunate to have access to such a great health service (and bus lanes!!!). But that is another story...

From the vicarage

Marriage is very much on my mind at the moment with one daughter married here at St Giles on 29 July and another marrying next year. So I had a look at what others have said about marriage -

Adam and Eve had an ideal marriage. He didn't have to hear about all the men she could have married, and she didn't have to hear about the way his mother cooked.

So is there such a thing as an ideal marriage? Ruth Graham wife of Billy Graham said the following 'A good marriage is the union of two forgivers'. Certainly a short memory is required.

Keith and I recently celebrated our ruby wedding (40 years) and by experience we can say that there is no perfect marriage only those where there is a will to journey together through life's ups and downs.

Others have their own recipe for a good marriage and the recipe given by one poet for a good wedding cake included a pound of blindness to faults, a pound of good humour but by far the largest ingredient was 4 pounds of love.

The Corinthians 13 reading is the most requested readings at weddings. It tells of love and the qualities of love that are needed in any relationship, not just a marriage partner:

Love is patient, love is kind... It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

The words written so long ago echo down the years of so many marriages. Yet each couple makes their own marriage unique with the love they have for each other.

It is always a delight to marry couples in St Giles, to get to know them and their families before the big day. You will find our wedding leaflet in the lobby which answers some of the questions that you may need to consider if you want a church wedding here in Bramhope. Alternatively our web site has the same information www.stgilesbramhope.org.uk.

Take a look at our website; Karen Giles has done some sterling work and there are details of our services, what to do if you want a baptism, a wedding and lots of pictures of social and other events that have taken place over the years.

This year our Alpha course is being replaced with a confirmation course for those who want to find more about the Christian faith. The course starts in the autumn and Alpha will run again in 2018.

As we have a break over the summer months I hope you will take some time to think about those friends and neighbours who may not know Jesus and think about who you will advertise our confirmation course to and who you will ask to our harvest celebrations in October with our harvest service followed by a three course lunch.

Heavenly Father, thank you for this day.
We remember that we are created and loved by you.
We welcome you now as you have already welcomed us.
We pray that we may know the power of your personal invitation to our lives.
Give us confidence to offer a friend your personal invitation.
We thank you for the gift of church as community.
Make us aware of you.
We pray in the name of Jesus.
Amen

Who do you love enough to ask?

God Bless

CIRCLE DANCING

On Tuesday July 4 we held our "Encircling the Land with Sacred Dance" event in Otley Parish Church, for the 2nd time. We were made very welcome once more.

The theme was LOVE as antidote to HATE. The news recently could easily give you the impression that the world is made up of people who are full of hate. But out of every tragedy comes proof that there are far more caring and kind people, who have set up food banks for the victims, offered accommodation to families, and joined together to help in any way possible.

A saying by Archbishop Desmond Tutu goes...

KINDNESS is stronger than EVIL
LIGHT is stronger than DARKNESS

LOVE is stronger than HATE
With these words in mind, we did dances all about LOVE. One of the favourites was "The Power of Love". We imitate the many layers of petals of a rose, opening up in the warm sunshine.

We all agreed that if ever we despair about the state of the world, the best thing to do is to go out into the garden and smell a rose, stand and listen to a blackbird singing, or sit on a seat and watch the sun slowly setting. The previous weekend, Otley Parish Church held a Flower Festival called "All things bright and Beautiful", and one of the displays was "Sunset and the morning" which was quite spectacular. Every shade of flower from deep red to the palest yellow radiated outwards like the beams of light from the sun. So our final dance was Sunset: a beautiful ending to a very happy evening.

WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP

In June we had another amazing talk by Veronica Bird. Previously she had spoken to us about her work in prisons, especially the time that she was a Prison Governor. On this occasion she described the terrible conditions in Russian prisons - even today. We hope to hear from her again very soon.

In July we look forward to our summer lunch at Caring for Life.

An Imagined Summer Walk

To take part in this Summer Prayer Walk, you will need to imagine that you are in a Summer Garden with a long view beyond it. It also has a washing line in it, a bottom gate that takes you to the start of a long hill, a rubbish heap and a pond.

1. Stop for a moment and look out beyond the garden. Take the long view and ask God to restore your perspective “God be in my head and in my understanding;

God be in my eyes and in my looking;

God be in my heart and in my thinking”.

2. At the washing line, consider your ordinary, everyday tasks. Offer them to God as you peg a tea towel on the line

“Teach me, my God and King,

in all things thee to see,

and what I do in anything, to do it as for Thee”.

3. At the bottom gate, go through, turn and stand to look at the uphill path.

Consider the difficulties and struggles that may be ahead.

“Christ of the upward way, my guide divine,

where thou hast set Thy feet may I place mine;
and move and march wherever Thou has trod
keeping face forward up the hill of God”.

4. Down to the bottom of the garden.

As you pass by the rubbish heap, are there things you need to get rid of, or let go of?

Screw up your own list and leave it there.

“Let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles”

Hebrews 12:1

5. At the pond, notice the new life, and hope for the future.

“Forget the former things, do not dwell in the past. See, I am doing a new thing”.

Isaiah 43:18.

This Walk continues next month! The Author of this Walk is unknown.

Book Review: Prayers, Texts & Tears: A creative response to grief

What happens when your whole world is shattered by the death of someone you love?

For spoken word artist Dai Woolridge, losing his dad to cancer left him lost for words. This book is a raw and honest account of grief; using stories, psalm like prayers and sometimes humour, Dai offers a creative responsive to God.

He says "In this book I wanted as much as possible to bare my soul. To prise it open and show you what's inside: the faith bits, the gritty bits and the tough bits. It is a book for those who have grieved, are grieving or yet to grieve.

My hope is that it will help put into words what is so hard to express. My prayer is that you will find God to be the ultimate Carrier of grief carriers."

I can wholeheartedly recommend this book for those of you who are grieving. Grieving takes many forms not just the death of a loved one although that is the hardest to bear, but grief can come in disappointment, lost love, lost relationship and lost hopes.

Here Dai gives his prayer and thought of what happens after a death and we have to come to terms with life without the one we loved

Dai Woolridge is the voice behind "Spoken

Lord

The pace of the race is Moving at an incredible pace

The G force is pulling funny looks on my face

Lots of changes

And they feel all at once

Rather than stages.

It feels good but it feels too fast

It feels empty with the man who played my Dad

No longer on the cast

I see Dad shaped holes

Everywhere I go

A feeling

Of seeming

Content in the direction my life is moving

But it hurts

Because its moving without him.

Truth" and popular speaker at Spring Harvest and New Wine. He works for the Bible Society, lives in Pontypridd, South Wales and is married to Cath.

MARGARET & MICHAEL COLES

Margaret: I was born in Hull, the daughter of a vicar, who then took up a living in Scarborough. My brother and I were sent off to boarding school. At home, I became a member of Scarborough Yacht Club, and on leaving school I read for a social science diploma at Leeds University. I took a job as the assistant personnel director at Mardena Gowns in Shipley, but then decided to apply for training as a hospital social worker, starting at the London Hospital, whilst living in the settlement in Peckham. My first post as a medical social worker was at St James's Hospital in Leeds followed by one at Otley. I met my husband at Alwoodley Cricket Ground: he was playing and I was reading. We married in 1959 in Bath, where my family was living and had two daughters. One lives and works in New York, the other near Ripon. We have four grandchildren. I spent two years working for the Marriage Guidance Council, but eventually worked full-time at Chapel Allerton Hospital and the LGI. I spent five years on the Wheatfields committee and many years as a trustee of the Harrison Potter Almshouse Trust. I became a Soroptimist and a member of Bramhope Women's Fellowship, of which I am now a committee member

Michael: I was born in Leeds, went away to boarding school and did two years National Service in the Royal Artillery, serving in Hong Kong. Afterwards I served for a further five years in the Territorial Army with the rank of Captain. I worked for nine years in the family business of paper merchants, before training to be an English teacher. I did an Open University degree and eventually became the Head of English at Priesthorpe School in Pudsey, before retiring in 1995. I have been member of Headingley Rotary club since 1996 and, when President in 2001, started the club's association with Caring for Life in Cookridge, in order to help with adult literacy, which I still do. I was a keen hockey player and cricketer and enjoyed playing the piano, until a stroke upset my coordination. I supported the Leeds Piano Competition for many years.

After Margaret and I moved to Bramhope in 1978, we both attended St Giles Church. I was on the PCC for three years and have been a sidesman for twenty. We generally attend the early service or Evensong. In 1981, Margaret received an invitation for both of us to the Buckingham Palace Garden Party. Because this clashed with Botham's famous Headingley test match, there was a conflict of loyalties. The Palace won. On my retirement we spent a month touring in South Africa, where we have relations. We both enjoyed caravanning and hill walking at home and abroad for over 40 years, but have now settled for cruising and playing bridge.

Consistent Award Winning Customer Care

Leading your Church into Growth

The Leading Your Church into Growth (LYCIG) course took place in 2016 and was attended by many members of the congregation.

The course members put forward many suggestions for actions that might lead to growth in our church at St Giles. The idea of growth covered growth in numbers, spiritual growth and growth in outreach to the local community.

The ideas have been discussed by the PCC and the main areas for action included:

- Work with young people
- Work with older people
- The need for more prayer

We are not able to do everything at once and we have to work within the limits of the resources and volunteers that we have. Having said that, we have been able to progress some of the ideas and I would like to highlight the achievements so far:

4th Sunday Children's Work

Children's work was one of the priorities of those who took part in our LYCIG sessions.

We now have a team to take this on and I would like to express my thanks to all those who have agreed to do this work. We have mainly experienced people who are current or ex teachers or church children's workers of many years standing.

Currently this will run on the 4th Sunday, but if there is demand we could expand it to take place on other Sundays. The dates up to Christmas are September 24, October 22, November 26, none in August or December.

The suggestion made at LYCIG was that the children have the same theme as that of the main service. So we are using the Susan Sayers 'Living Stones' all age programme, with resources for pre school children and those aged 6 to 10.

The children go out of church into the hall during the first hymn and return before Communion. So what do they get up to when in the hall? There are lots of different things happening depending on who is leading so far we have had stories from the Lion Storyteller Bible a special story telling Bible For children, crafts who will forget how we made a model of Jesus ascending to heaven, games and last month song and dance with the help of Youtube! It's lively and happy group so if you would like your children to join in, come along on any of the dates above and if you want to help please contact me.

Open House

Open House meets on the 3rd Wednesday of the month from October to June (2pm to 4pm). We are a cheerful little group who enjoy fellowship, tea and cakes. We always have a light-hearted activity or quiz which causes much hilarity.

Our numbers are growing - not just ladies but we also have several gentlemen. Why not come along – a warm welcome awaits.

Prayer

Prayer was agreed as a priority by all the LYCIG groups.

We have held some ad hoc prayer meetings at 7am in the chapel. These covered prayers following the referendum, the recent terrorist attacks and as part of the Archbishop of Canterbury's initiative called "Thy Kingdom Come".

The Healing Prayer Team have arranged for candle lighting to be provided at special services such as Mothering Sunday, Fathers' Day and Christmas to remember loved ones.

We would like to thank everybody who took part in LYCIG and pray that God will bless and guide our work.

News from OPAL...

Life at OPAL continues to be busy and exciting. We have launched our third weekly luncheon club – this one is for over 50's and is on a Friday serving at 12noon and 1pm. You get a 2 course meal and a cuppa for just £4!!!

Our fortnightly Ping Table Tennis Group is getting more and more popular and is great fun. Thank you to Peter and Rick from PING who are on hand to give coaching and support as well as having the essential fishing net for retrieving stray balls. All levels of ability are made very welcome – as an absolute novice I can vouch for that - but if you fancy a challenging game, we also have some fiendishly skilful players.

Thank you to the BeyondMe-PwC team who invested their time and money over the last year to support OPAL with our management strategy, digital strategy and social evaluation. We also had a team come spend a day with us helping with promotion, gardening and driving.

The gardening is a massive task and one that needs hours and hours of work. We had a team from Leeds Building Society and a team from Johnson and Johnson who each gave their time to help. We don't yet have the money to spend on the grounds so we are indebted to the many groups for helping to make our grounds look tidy and cared for. If you know anyone/any company who would like to have a team building day, then our grounds provide the perfect opportunity for people to work together and to make a difference. If you want more information, please get in contact.

It is our AGM in 2 weeks' time on 19th July at 2pm, at Cookridge Methodist Church Hall. It has been a year of change for OPAL and our members and we would love you to come along and help us shape the future of OPAL. We also have entertainment, homemade cake and we celebrate OPAL's 15th year of supporting older people in Leeds16.

OPAL's Welcome In Community Café is open 9am – 2pm on Wednesdays, Thursday and Fridays and all are welcome. We serve breakfasts, lunch and the most delicious homemade cakes at very reasonable prices. We have free Wi-Fi and a big car park so you can use the café for informal meetings or to work. We have also started hosting events in the café and recently hosted a children's disco and a funeral tea. We also have a significant birthday party booked in a few weeks. We have a great space so if you have an event coming up; why not consider Welcome In Community Centre for your venue?

Finally, a little reminder to all who shop at Coop to use your coop loyalty card and please log into your Coop account and choose OPAL as your nominated charity. We are raising much needed funds for our Remember When Group (for people with dementia and their carers) and if you do this, 1% of all your spending on Coop branded items will be donated to OPAL.

Thank you as always to all of you for supporting OPAL. We are incredibly lucky to have so many people support us and we really value each and every one of you.

"Who do you think I really am?" Jesus asked his special friends one day.

Peter was quick to answer.

"You are the promised King," he said. "God has sent you to rescue us and make us safe."

Jesus was pleased with Peter's answer. He was glad they knew who he really was.
