I HOPE you have all recovered from the post Christmas slump people seem to experience. I have to admit, I don't get it; perhaps being one of those annoying 'morning people' I like the chance to start afresh in January. That and it's the month of my birthday!

AND so to February... St Valentine's Day, Shrove Tuesday (my pet name as a child was Pancake Polly) and the last slog to the peak of winter before the promise of spring. What more could we ask for? Perhaps a few really good snow days—but I won't be greedy.

As Lent starts on March 1, we have a trio of articles to help you prepare for our pilgrimage: Jenni gives a taster of the Lent Course, in 'To be a pilgrim'; Jonathan provides a moment of reflection and Sue dips into the library shelf with some recommended reading.

I hope you enjoy the journey.

From the Vicarage

It's not often that we find in the listings films about Jesus. They are few and far between so it was with some surprise that I found not one but two films about Jesus on the small screen over Christmas.

So he (Joseph) got up, took the child and his mother during the night and left for Egypt, where he stayed until the death of Herod. Matthew 2:14-15

The first film is about the missing years of Jesus and how it was imagined that he became conscious of who he was, not the son of Joseph and Mary but the Son of God. The film was called the Young Messiah. It had a reasonable premise and started out in a Jewish community in Egypt with a young Jesus conscious that he was different but no knowledge of who he was. The film centred on the search that continued for the New Born King even after the slaughter of the innocents in Bethlehem. Sean Bean is the centurion with the unenviable task of seeking the missing King.

"Take a guard," Pilate answered. "Go, make he tomb as secure as you know how." So they went and made the tomb secure by putting a seal on the stone and posting a guard. Matthew 27:65-66

The second film is called Risen with Joseph Fiennes as the Roman tribune Clavius who is ordered by Pontius Pilate to find out what happened to the body of Jesus. During a raid through a Jewish enclave, Clavius unexpectedly discovers a seemingly resurrected Yeshua with his apostles in a solitary place. Clavius calls off the search; he disperses his troops without revealing to them his personal encounter with the risen Yeshua.

Clavius assists the disciples in evading the Roman search party; he consequently witnesses the healing of a leper, and then the ascension of Jesus into Heaven. Later, communicating his travels to a stranger in a remote dwelling, Clavius acknowledges the vivifying wisdom which he observed through Yeshua, feeling he will never be the same.

What appropriate viewing for Lent. The mystery of the resurrection and what followed after has kept people thinking, seeking and discovering Jesus ever since.

Jesus still provides the opportunity for us to have a personal encounter with Him, but he doesn't make us believe we are not asked to leave our brains and our senses out of our search. On the contrary he wants us to question, debate, think through the God question, the resurrection and what happened after the cross.

There is no time like Lent to put our brains into gear, think more about our faith, put our faith in our faith so we can pray and study more, leading us to worship and adore Him.

I hope that you will find time during Lent to come to a Lent group and learn more about your faith and come closer to God.

May God Bless you as you seek to deepen your faith, may the Holy Spirit bless you and guide you through the Lenten period.

Women's World Day of Prayer

ON Friday March 3 over 5000 services will be held in the British Isles on the theme of

'Am I being unfair to you?' The Christian women of the Philippines wrote the service and it has been translated into 1000 different languages and dialects, to be used throughout the world. Starting at sunrise on the island of Samoa and continuing until sunset off the coast of American Samoa.

In 2013, Typhoo Haiyan – named locally as 'Yolanda' – struck the Philippine Islands in the western Pacific Ocean. This is mentioned in the service but you will also hear the stories of a girl, a mother and an older woman, recounting their situations and their hopes and fears. The service focusses on the Bible story of the workers in the vineyard: (Matthew 20 v 1-16). There is a reflection on the artwork designed by Rowena 'Apol' Laxamana-Sta.Rosa. It is very thought-provoking and illustrates contrasting scenes.

The Day of Prayer is not just for women. Everyone is welcome to attend the service. The Bramhope service will be held in the Methodist church.

To be a pilgrim...

ASH Wednesday this year will be on 1 March and thus begins Lent! Our Lent Course this year will be based on 'Pilgrim – A course for the Christian Journey'.

So, what is a Lent Course actually for? It is good to discuss issues of faith with fellow Christians at any time of the year, but Lent is traditionally a time of prayer and fasting to prepare for Easter, and a Course is also another way to prepare for the most joyous and central celebration in our faith.

Pilgrim is a new teaching and discipleship course from the Church of England, started in 2013. Its authors include Stephen Cottrell, Bishop of Chelmsford and Paula Gooder, a lecturer and member of the General Synod. Many others have contributed to writing the course and preparing the individual sessions, including our very own Bishop Nick Baines. The course approach is described as 'participation rather than persuasion' in the way people are encouraged to engage.

Pilgrim has two stages and we will be following the second 'Grow' stage which is aimed at people who wish to go further on their journey to develop their faith (the first stage of the course is for people very new to faith).

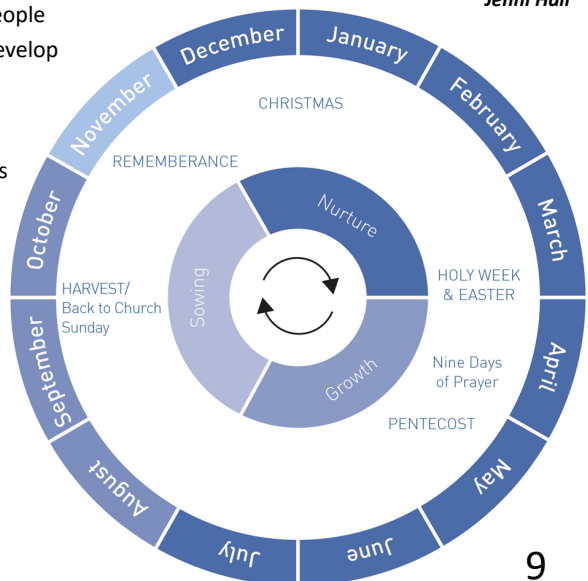

Pilgrim's approach is Christ-centred and flows from study of the Scriptures. In the early church, faith was taught through the transmission of key texts from the Bible. Pilgrim restores this approach for the twenty-first century. The four sessions of the course are entitled 'The Creeds', 'The Eucharist', 'The Bible' and 'Church & Kingdom'. It looks like a great way to further our individual faith in community with other church members, and as a result encourage the growth and vibrancy of our own church community.

So very soon in a lobby near you there will appear sign up forms for this Lent Course. As always, there will be a choice of days, times and venues, and there will certainly be a session to suit EVERYONE in the congregation and beyond. I think it looks very exciting.

You can find out a lot more about the course at pilgrimcourse.org or by asking Janice. We look forward to making this pilgrim journey together as a church.

Jenni Hall

Look out for the sign up lists in the church lobby, later this month. More information will follow on the screens in church and on the website

TIME for Prayer

The Gospel According to St Matthew sets out the teachings of Jesus, that we know as “The Sermon on the Mount”.

Some of them begin with the words “How blest are...” and we know these as “The Beatitudes”.

But what about some Beatitudes for today? Here are some from New Zealand for you to ponder.

How blest are those who abhor easy pieties; the kingdom of heaven is theirs.

How blest are those who train in non-violence; they shall have the earth for their possession.

How blest are those who fast for justice; they shall be satisfied.

How blest are those who see enemies as human; mercy shall be shown to them.

How blest are those who live what they profess; they shall see God.

How blest are those who build bridges of reconciliation; God shall call them his friends.

How blest are those who show the outcast that someone understands; the kingdom of heaven is theirs.

From “Finding the Way: NZ Christians Look Forward” by Peter Matheson

Please ask your friends or relations to let us know if you wish for someone to pray with you and/or bring Holy Communion whilst you are ill or in hospital and unable to get to Sunday Worship. In the first instance they should contact the Vicar or Bryan Bunday: Rev Janice Smith 203 7523, or Bryan Bunday 267 8534

Who packed your parachute?

Thank you to Bryan Bunday for sharing this thought-provoking message he received this Christmas.

AIR Commodore Vishal was a Jet Pilot in the Indian National Air-force. In a combat mission his fighter plane was destroyed by a missile. He however ejected himself and parachuted down safely. He won acclaim and appreciations from many.

After five years, one day he was sitting with his wife in a restaurant. A man from another table came over to him and said "Why, you're Captain Vishal, aren't you? You flew jet fighters. And you were shot down!"

"Yes, I am! But how in the world did you know?" asked Vishal.

"I packed your parachute," the man smiled as he replied.

Vishal gasped in surprise and also gratitude and he thought if his parachute hadn't worked, he wouldn't be there that day.

Vishal couldn't sleep that night, thinking about that man. He wondered how many times he might have seen him and not even said 'Good morning, how are you?' or anything, because he was a fighter pilot, an officer of senior standing and the other man was just a safety worker.

And so, dear friend, who happens to be packing your parachute today?

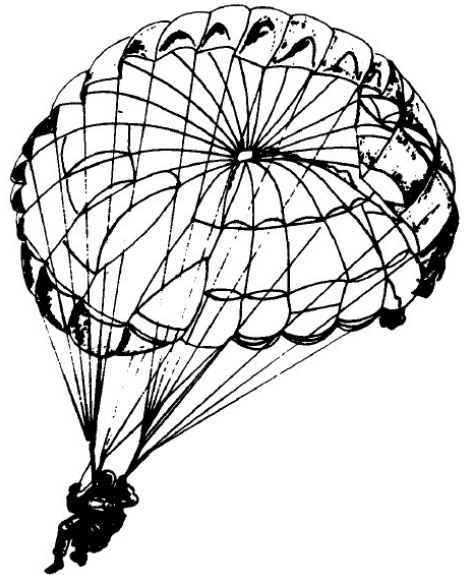

Just consider that everyone has someone who provides what they need to make it through the day.

We need many kinds of parachutes – we need the physical parachute, the mental parachute, the emotional parachute and even the spiritual parachute.

We may call on one or all these supports before reaching safety.

Sometimes in the daily challenges that life gives us, we can miss what is really important.

We may fail to say hello, please, or thank you, to congratulate someone on something wonderful that has happened to them, give a compliment, or just do something nice for no particular reason.

As we prepare for Lent, let us all recognize the people who pack our parachutes.

Circle Dancing

ANOTHER amazing 6 days at Rydal Hall over New Year. Each year it's more or less the same programme, but it's always a new Theme. This time it was "PEACE & RECONCILIATION". Very apt. The world is in great need of that at the moment.

We started with a dance called Uprising, to represent the start of a conflict. There was a dance to go through all the stages of war. A memorable one for me was "Change", with lots of turns and changes of direction, emphasising the necessity for each side to change some of their convictions in order to find a way forward to solve the disagreements. That's the only way to achieve a settlement. Lots of peace dances followed, expressing ordinary people's desire to live in peace. Finally we finished with a dance called Reconciliation, which ends in a group hug i.e. in a circle with our arms round the waist of those on either side.

On New Year's Eve we enact a 'journey' with dancers, singers and musicians all with a contribution. In the evening we have a concert when anyone can offer some sort of entertainment. Great merriment!

New Year's Day was blue sky and sunshine, so 4 of us drove over the Kirkstone Pass to Ullswater and up to Pooley Bridge for hot chocolates to warm our extremities!

Our names are already down on the list for next year...

Joan Peart

St Giles Women's Fellowship

WE would like to thank everyone (male and female) who supported our December meeting. The talk, "Christmas with Royalty", was given by Colin Anderson, who had been a pastry chef to the royal family for about 30 years. It was an extremely amusing and interesting talk, with amazing slides of the food and life in the royal palaces. Just over £300.00 was raised to go Wheatfield's Hospice. This year's AGM will be held on February 14th.

Janet Cunliffe

THE Church was once again packed with families for the two Christingle Services on Christmas Eve. Donations were very generous and with gift aid the total was a magnificent £1600, a big increase on last year's total. Very many thanks to the musicians, singers, sidespersons, people operating the screen and sound systems and everyone else who gave up their time on Christmas Eve afternoon to contribute to the success of these very special services. We sold 127 packs of Christmas cards raising a profit of approximately £265, again an increase on last year's sales. The sale of quizzes went well, around 250 sold, 8 returned, none completely correct and the winner was the Cratchley family from Long Meadows. The answers are displayed on our notice board in the Church Hall. Special thanks go to the Johnson family who compiled this quiz during a family get together over a wet weekend.

Men 's Supper Club

Our Speaker for the first meeting of the New Year was Revd. Roger Dedman, a retired Priest, now living in Otley. His subject '200 Years of Post-boxes'.

We tend to use post-boxes, but not look at them, and his many photographs from all over the country illustrated their variety, from as early as 1852 (with vertical post slots), freestanding, wall mounted and varying shapes. Each box, now marked 'Royal Mail' instead of 'Post Office' bears the Royal Cypher denoting the monarch in whose reign it was produced. Have a look, next time you post!

Since Fred was recovering from a hernia operation, Bryan took the Chair. He expressed concern that with only 3 meetings left before the Summer break, Feb., March & May, nobody had yet come forward offering to replace Fred, who finishes after 10 years as Chairman in May. We need somebody – please come and talk to Fred about what is involved in chairing the meetings, along with Jonathan, who is covering the job of providing Speakers, otherwise we are in danger of the Supper Club closing..

Mothers ' Union

As I write this report we are looking forward to our New Year Lunch at The Queen's in Chapel Allerton. This will be a new venture for us so fingers crossed everyone will enjoy it. In February we are meeting on 1st at 2pm for our AGM followed by a short film about a trip to the Holy Land. The Mothers' Union was established in 1876. Its purpose was to encourage parents in caring for their children, not just physically and mentally but also spiritually. From the outset it recognised that strong relationships and the role of family, however defined, are crucial in building healthy communities.

St Giles' Mothers' Union is a thriving friendly group and we are open to everyone. You don't have to be a mother, a female or elderly! All you need is a Christian faith and a wish to help others. Membership is £21 for 2017 and this money is used for the work of the Mothers' Union all over the world as well as in this country. We would love to get more involved within the local Community and some of the ways we do this are by running Open House on the 3rd Wednesday afternoon of each month in St Giles and sending Baptism Cards to those who have been baptised.

So whether you choose to come to Open House or MU we'd love to welcome you!

Gill Pinches

Your group not here?

Why not send us a short piece about your club: what you do, why you enjoy it, why we should join... We'd love to hear from you.

Getting to know.....

Julie and Alan Tomkins

JULIE

ALAN and I met in January 1978, which unbelievably, is 39 years ago! We met at Leeds Polytechnic Disco, an Institution which neither of us attended. He tells me he had a romantic appointment that night with a young lady named "Diane" ... who subsequently failed to attend! This prepared him well for the later disappointments of the dental waiting room! Her loss was very obviously my gain but I'm always slightly nervous when we are introduced to anyone named "Diane"!

I was born in Leeds, grew up in Chapel Allerton and attended Notre Dame G.S. which was at the time a Girls' Convent School. I loved school and my favourite subjects were English Literature and French.

I worked in a dress shop on Saturdays and school holidays and also in "Austicks" a very well-known Leeds book shop. At 19, I traversed over the Pennines (the trains were more reliable in those days!) to begin my SRN and RSCN training in Liverpool, before doing midwifery training on the Wirral. Ironically, just before I left for "the darker side", I was to meet a man who came from Liverpool but was studying in Leeds! You really couldn't write it ...but "Reader, I married him!"

We have recently celebrated our "Coral Wedding" (No! Alan didn't know either!!) and have four grown-up children, three boys, Christopher, Matthew and Peter and one girl Elizabeth (Lizzie). Our elder two live in the South of England and the younger two in Leeds.

Matthew married Agnieszka, in Gdansk in September 2016 and Janice (and Keith) flew out to "do the honours". It could of course have been my imagination... but I believe that when I told her she was flying "Wlzz Air" her knees temporarily buckled!

We moved to Bramhope in 1989 because Alan remembered liking the pub there when he was a student! We have attended St Giles Church since that time and we couldn't recommend it highly enough. We feel we have been given endless opportunities to "join in" and to "grow" in so many ways.

I hire out the Church Hall at St Giles which is a great privilege because it is such an "easy sell" and I get to meet so many fabulous people.

My hobbies are reading, writing and singing. We are both members of the Church Band (Sax and Vocals) and I also sing with "Chorus UK". I write "occasional poetry" and most recently did so for “St Giles Black Tie Dinner” in honour of the Queen’s 90th birthday. After trying it out (the poem) on the good folk Up North... I sent it directly to HRH at the Palace (recorded delivery of course!) It seemed to make the guy in the Headingley Post Office’s day! (“Ethel, we’ve a right pair of nutters here!”)

I have to say she took a full FIVE months to reply BUT reply she did! She was very interested to learn about our celebrations at St Giles last June.

ALAN

RATHER like the situation in our wardrobes... there isn’t going to be a lotta room here for Alan’s offerings.

I was born in Liverpool the middle of three sons (middle child syndrome!) and grew up in Formby. It was great fun having access to the pine forests, sand dunes and beach ...famous for its red squirrels, natterjack toads and asparagus farms. That and Liverpool FC, what more could a growing lad ask for?

I went to “Scarisbrick Hall School” where I learnt all I know about football, cricket and athletics. From there, I went on to Leeds University where I studied Dentistry and became fascinated by the art and science of Orthodontics! This was to be my career, so in order to become a “Registered Specialist” and something to do whilst Julie was doing her “middies”... I undertook further full-time study and training at Liverpool Dental Hospital. Shortly after qualifying in Liverpool, the “Toxteth Riots” struck and we moved back over the Pennines to the safety of Leeds with our eldest son who was then 5 months old.

My hobbies include sport and music. I play badminton for a team in Adel and try to get as many trips to Anfield with my sons as possible. I am a true Beatles fan and would thoroughly recommend the “Magical Mystery Tour” of the old Beatles haunts. We just bought “A Ticket to Ride!”

I organise the Church Grounds Rota and am always amazed at the willingness of Bramhope residents and beyond to be a part of this rota. In the words of the former Archdeacon Paul Hooper our church is in a very enviable position and he described it as:

“The last bastion of civilisation before the wilderness!”

On that note ...they say “it’s a jungle out there” so come along and see us for a bit of “Karma”!

From the library shelf

FEBRUARY, when there is a hint of spring in the air, snowdrops in bloom, and when, on the 14th we celebrate St. Valentine's Day. This is an official feast day in the Anglican church, which we observe, according to Wikipedia, by 'Sending greeting cards and gifts, dating, and church services', and which has become (like Christmas and Easter) a huge commercial opportunity.

It is a celebration of romantic love, and of course any celebration of love should be welcomed; it also prompts us to think about what love really means. I have two books for you this month, both about love. The first is 'The Four Loves', by C S Lewis, first published in 1960; it is interesting to read it now, 57 years later. At first sight it may seem somewhat dated, but it has lost none of its impact; the ideas, and the wisdom that supports them are as relevant now as they were then.

In the Introduction, the author distinguishes two different types of love - Gift-Love and Need-love: 'The typical example of Gift-love would be that love which moves a man to plan and save for the future well-being of his family which he will die without sharing or seeing; of the second (Need-love) that which sends a lonely or frightened child to his mother's arms.' This is followed by a second chapter dealing with the love of things – for example pleasure and patriotism – and how these can become more important to us than the love of God.

Those two chapters set the scene for the next four chapters which are concerned with the four different kinds of human; Affection, Friendship, Eros and Charity (Agape -the love of God.) The author gives a full and honest account of human love, not just its virtues but its pitfalls. If you think you know what love means, then read this and you will think again. It gives a different perspective on how we love (or not). You will need to stomach the sexist examples used, especially in the chapter on friendship. These now seem dated, if not offensive, but remember that this was written by a male academic in a male-dominated institution (Oxford University), when society was even less kind to women than it is now!

The last chapter is about Charity, the unconditional and transforming love of God, and how we need this if our human love is to be truly fulfilled, for as Lewis says 'God is Love'. We are reminded that love does not protect us from heartbreak and suffering:

'To love at all is to be vulnerable. Love anything and your heart will certainly be wrung and possibly be broken. If you want to make sure of keeping it intact, you must give your heart to no one, not even to an animal. Wrap it carefully round with hobbies and little luxuries; avoid all entanglements; lock it up safe in the casket or coffin of your selfishness. But in that casket- safe, dark, motionless, airless - it will change. It will not be broken; it will become unbreakable, impenetrable, irredeemable.'

Even after 57 years this book is still well worth reading!

Now to my second book, 'Agape Love Stories', by John Sentamu. It is also about the love of God, specifically how people have experienced His love in their lives, and how their lives have changed in response to that love. 22 people have contributed to this book; all have experienced life-changing experiences, some of them so tragic it is hard to see how they have survived. They range from Jean Vanier who founded the L'Arche communities to Gee Walker whose son was murdered in 2005.

Each chapter has a short biography of the contributor, followed by a bible passage and a commentary by John Sentamu, before a longer passage from the contributors themselves.

This is an interesting, sometimes heart-rending book, a real insight into how God's love overcomes suffering and tragedy and transforms lives.

Please read this book – it will inspire you!

About the library...

THE St. Giles Church Library is kept in the folding bookcase in the Church Hall. It is usually open before and after church services when you are welcome to browse the library and borrow books. If for any reason the library is not open, please ask one of the wardens on duty to open it for you, or you can open it yourself.

You are welcome to borrow any book(s). Please enter your details on the loan sheet (kept on top of the books on the top shelf of the right-hand side of the bookcase). A small donation in the box provided, would be welcome. It will go towards the purchase of new books.

If you have any queries, comments, or suggestions about the library please come and talk to me when you see me at Church (usually to be found in the vicinity of the library during coffee on Sunday mornings). Alternatively contact me at any time. I would be delighted to hear from you!
