Another month, another magazine and another tree to decorate! You may think I have lost the plot with this month's choice; I hope once you have read Janice's articles and letter, you will get my 'joke'???

Talking of lightbulb moments... We are looking for contributors to the magazine so if you have any stories you would like to share, particularly about the charities and other good causes you support, or are involved with, we would love to hear from you. Bill Cunliffe, our resident photographer and news hound is gathering stories for a new column: the good neighbour. So please do get in touch with Bill or via the magazine email below.

The communications team has also experienced a 'change' this month. It is with a mixture of sadness and joy that we say goodbye to Sarah Shay, our guru of order and the spreadsheet! We are joyful and proud of the success she has achieved with her businesses but sorry to no longer have her as a member of the team. I am sure you will all join us in thanking Sarah for her huge contribution to the communications team and wishing her continued success in all that follows.

How many Anglicans does it take to change a light bulb?

One to call the electrician, one to mix the drinks, and one to talk about how much better the old one was.

I have a stock of these lightbulb quips and you will find the odd one spattered throughout my copy this month.

The purpose of them is to draw your attention to change. The whole Christian faith is based on change. Change from darkness to light, from unbelief to faith, from hate to love, from death to life. The fact is the Christian faith, belief in our Lord Jesus Christ means one thing: change of us, the people we are, to the people that Jesus wants us to become. And the powerhouse for that change is the Holy Spirit.

On June 4 we celebrate Pentecost, the coming of the Holy Spirit to the disciples. Acts 2. At Pentecost the disciples were filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak in foreign languages they had never learned before. A crowd gathered, people from all over the world, and that crowd listened and understood as the disciples preached the Gospel. The Apostle Peter stood up and addressed the crowd – he gave a beautiful sermon that God the Holy Spirit inspired him to preach.

The reaction to that sermon was 3000 people came to faith and were baptized. All we know about the 3000 is they were not Christians, and on that day they were changed into believers.

At Pentecost we see the change that took place in the disciples, and the change that took place in those 3000 people. Our broken and needy world needs change. The world needs the change that faith in Jesus Christ can bring. Are we like the disciples before Pentecost - confused, weak, timid and afraid of declaring our faith?

The Holy Spirit was given to us at our baptisms; at our confirmations all we have to do is call on His power to turn us more and more into the Christian that God wants us to be. We need to call on Him to change us.

Pentecost can be summed up in one word: change (and no light bulbs required). May the Holy Spirit continue to work in you, to change you, to fan into flame the fire that is in each one of you.

God Bless you and those for whom you pray.

THE CHILDREN'S SOCIETY

The committee held the AGM on Monday March 6. We sent a total of £5,013.59 to the Society, a slight decrease on last year though the collections at the Christingle Services raised a record amount. The fundraising accounts are displayed on our noticeboard.

We are holding a Bridge Drive at the Craven Institute on Monday June 12, 1pm to 4pm, price £10 includes a light afternoon tea. Tickets on sale now.

PS It is quite alright to put old £5 notes and old £1 coins into your charity boxes before we empty them in November.

CIRCLE DANCING

On June 10, 26 of our group are going to Niederau in the Austrian Alps for the second time. We had such a tremendous time last year, we're all reecally excited about going back again to the Sonnenshein Hotel, and meeting up with our German friends again.

Silke will be sharing the teaching as usual, and this time there will be 3 other dancers from different parts of Germany. We still do many of Silke's dances which she taught last year. All of them are delightful, with beautiful music. Our theme will be "Around the World", so we have hundreds of dances to choose from, all coming from different cultures and distinctive characters. The steps reflect these backgrounds and often tell a story connected with the history of each land. My dances are from Russia, Ireland, Greece and Israel. This one is called Golan Heights, and mimics climbing up the rough stony terrain of the mountain, taking almost as many steps backwards as forwards! It's great fun.

Barbara Driscoll, who is a well-known choreographer and her husband are also coming with us. Barbara has made up a dance especially for our holiday, which I'm sure will have a tinge of Austria about it. We'll have to wait and see! I'm looking forward to walking over to the tiny chapel on the top of the nearby mountain, and singing inside.

MOTHERS' UNION

Our May meeting was such fun in many ways. First we had 2 speakers turn up but fortunately Elaine from the NSPCC very kindly agreed to come back next month. In the meantime Father Tony entertained us with some funny stories relating to faith. He began by saying laughing made us feel good and it certainly did!

June began to take bookings for our summer outing, this year to Sledmere Hall on 5th July. We have a 29 seater coach booked and spaces are filling up fast so please make sure you get your name down if you intend going.

We look forward to welcoming Elaine next month, on 7th June. (I think we'll have to have a special cake that day to make up for her double journey!)

THE MEN'S SUPPER CLUB

The meeting on Thursday May 11 was our 'Ladies Invitation Meeting' in the Church Hall.

The men acted as servers and 'wine waiters', making sure that the ladies were looked after! We all enjoyed a lovely meal, with choice of menu, prepared by Karen and her team.

The meal was followed by a delightful musical entertainment, arranged by Lydia Smith. Lydia played the violin accompanied on the piano by Alice Main. Both are accomplished musicians. Their programme of classical and traditional music enchanted us all.

WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP

In April we enjoyed the talk about the History of St Gemma's Hospice by a volunteer at St Gemma's. We learnt about the early history of St Gemma's when it was a convent and also aspects of its present wide reaching day to day care of patients.

In June, Veronica Bird's talk is entitled 'Mother and Babies.'

OPEN HOUSE

We had a very enjoyable meeting in May. It was lovely to see so many members and we hope our visitors – Pam Walton, Corinne Botham and Dorothy Pickles will join us in June for our final meeting before our summer break. We were also pleased to welcome back June Whitehead after a long period of illness.

We had an entertaining game of quoits accompanied by laughter and cheering whenever anyone scored. The outright winner on the day was Elaine Dagg and she received the cup (actually a mug) for the highest score. Thank you Janet and Bill for the loan of the game.

The afternoon finished in the traditional way – tea and delicious cakes.

A Miscellany of Prayers for June

In the Church's year, you will see that June 2017 has in it some notable days of Celebration and Commemoration. Here are some of them with some prayers for them which you may like to use.

June 4 - Day of Pentecost (Whit Sunday).

O Almighty God, who hast fulfilled thy word of promise, and from thy heavenly throne hast poured out upon thy Church the gift of the Holy Spirit: Open our hearts, we pray thee, to receive the fulness of his grace and power; that our lives may be strengthened for the service of thy kingdom, and our souls be conformed more and more to the image of thy Son, our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen

Frank Colquhoun

June 9- We give thanks for the life and work of St Columba (521- 597) Abbot of Iona, Missionary.

My dearest Lord, be thou a bright flame before me, be thou a guiding star above me, be thou a smooth path beneath me, be thou a kindly shepherd behind me, today and for evermore

Amen.

St Columba

June 24 – We give thanks for the birth of John the Baptist.

Almighty God, by whose providence thy servant John Baptist was wonderfully born, and sent to prepare the way of your Son our Saviour, by preaching of repentance; Make us so to follow his doctrine and holy life, that we may truly repent according to his preaching; and after his example constantly speak the truth, boldly rebuke vice, and patiently suffer for the truth's sake; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

From the Book of Common Prayer

June 29 - We give thanks for the life and work of St Peter

Almighty God, who didst inspire thy apostle Saint Peter to confess Jesus as Christ and Son of the Living God: build up thy Church upon this rock, that in unity and peace it may proclaim one truth and follow one Lord, thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

From the library shelf...

The book I have chosen for this month is 'Being Disciples. Essentials of the Christian Life' by Rowan Williams. It is based on addresses given by the author between 2007 and 2012.

This is a beautiful and profound book – if you only ever read one book on living the Christian Life, let it be this one. Several reviews are given at the start of the book, one of them remarking that 'It is impossible for any review to do it justice'. I would agree with this and so I will not write a detailed review. It is after all, only 86 pages long, with 6 chapters dealing with different aspects of the Christian Life, and it is not difficult to read.

The sub-title – 'Essentials of the Christian Life' is just what this is. Essential is a word that is so often used these days in marketing and advertising, often for things that are not essential or even necessary! The meaning of the word essential is 'absolutely necessary, extremely important' and the subject matter of this book is exactly that.

And what is meant by discipleship? Chapter 1 begins: 'Discipleship, as the title of this book indicates, is a state of being. Discipleship is about how we live; not just the decisions we make, not just the things we believe, but a state of being'. This gives a flavour of what is to follow in this beautifully written book, sometimes almost poetic in its use of language.

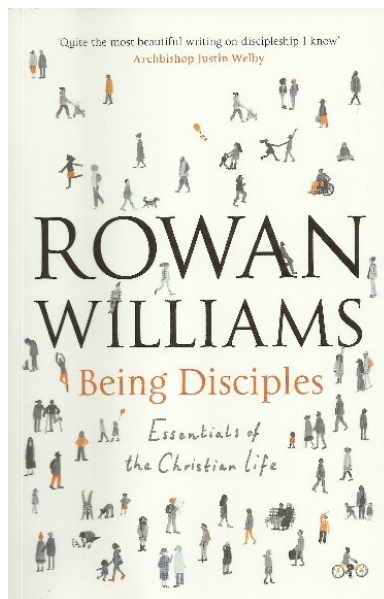

I bought the book some time ago, when the Leading your Church into Growth Meetings were taking place. The title caught my eye, as I had been thinking about what it means to be a disciple of Christ. This book explains just what discipleship means, with simplicity, clarity, and gentleness. That is not to say it is not challenging, it is, but it is also a comforting and hopeful book as it explores our relationship with God and with each other.

I will be buying my own copy and reading it again, probably many times – it is a book to have to hand throughout the faith journey.

Please read it!

APCM: What's that?

When I made the announcement of the APCM meeting to take place on the 2 April 2017, I was greeted with what's that then? Large organisations talk in short hand all the time and the church is no exception.

So what is the APCM? It stands for the Annual Parochial Church Meeting; it tells the parishioners what has been happening in church throughout the year. Our 2017 meeting was for the year from 1 January 2016 to 31 December 2016 and covered all aspects: from finances to building repairs; church services to safe guarding, our work with the elderly through to our children's work, and health and safety to the grounds. Every aspect of our church life is on view and reported on.

The meeting was attended by about 47 parishioners. There were elections and appointments to the Parochial Church Council (PCC). New members appointed to the PCC were Edwina Whitehead and Jude Smith. Joy Smith continues as our Deanery Synod Representative. Thank you to you all for volunteering. And our wonderful wardens Joanne Dawdry and June Pickles were re-appointed as church wardens.

The vicar's report gives an outline of what has been happening during the year and always contains thanks. This year was no different and thanks were given as follows:

Normally my thanks go at the end of my review of the year but today I have decided to put these first. I want to say thank you to all those who served God in this small part of his Kingdom here at St Giles, all those who serve in whatever capacity, and all those who give their money, their time and their love. My thanks go to you and to God for all His blessings and the happiness that brings.

As a PCC we have continued to work hard on behalf of the church, we have a treasurer who is a treasure, a secretary who is efficient, church wardens who are hard working and committed, and PCC members who have worked hard on your behalf. Our communications team have worked unceasingly advertising our events and services. They have brought the web site up to date, taken on the magazine and our fledgling Facebook page is now up and running.

I would like to thank Jonathan for his continued loyal support and my appreciation for David Kirby who has supported me when not helping others in Europe.

Finance as ever played a prominent part in the reports but the seriousness of finance was counter-balanced by our film of our last very enjoyable Rydal Hall week end visit.

So thank you to those who attended the meeting, thank you to all who have served in any capacity at St Giles during 2016.

May God continue to bless us during 2017.

Janice

Consistent Award Winning Customer Care

St Giles' Finances, June 2017

Thank You!

Each of you must give as you have made up your mind, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver

(2 Corinthians 9:7).

Another church year has passed and I am writing on behalf of the PCC to say thank you to all those of you who continued to be faithful to the work of your parish church in Bramhope. Your gifts and contributions to the running costs of the church during the year 2016 are very much appreciated.

I would also like to add my personal thanks. It really is only by the gifts that you and other worshippers make that continues the work of God in this place. Often people think that a congregation like St Giles gets its income from church HQ. Not true – every penny spent keeping St Giles in our village is donated by you the congregation and people who visit us for baptisms and weddings. There are no government grants to support the work of the church.

Our costs like your own never go down; costs rise relentlessly upwards and our income is under ever increasing pressure. This is often because people move away or their circumstances change. We will be bringing our income to the attention of the whole of the congregation and a stewardship campaign will take place this year. However in preparation for that, at the end of the annual meeting I did ask the following:

- When did you last increase your giving to the church? Often if we use a standing order we set it up and then never change it. My challenge to everyone is to look at whether it is time to increase that standing order you took out so long ago.
- If you don't regularly give to the church through standing order or envelopes and consider yourself part of our community could we ask you to make regular donations through standing order or envelopes please?
- And if you don't Gift Aid your donation, if you are a taxpayer, then please also consider gift aid it will cost you nothing.

If you want further information on standing orders and Gift Aid please contact Andrew or Gillian Taylor on 0113 203 7289 or for envelopes Sue Ball 267 3772.

Thank you all so much for giving to your church.

BILL & JANET CUNLIFFE

Bill and Janet have worshipped at St Giles since they moved to Bramhope in 1969. In the 70s and 80s we were on the PCC and the early 70s set up the Junior church of which Bill was the leader and taught the 11-15-year-olds (in those days there was no competition from Sunday football) and Janet taught the tiny tots – a 10 year stint. Bill, along with Jim Harrison and Dennis Marshall ran a church football team which won three trophies; the team contained some still familiar St Giles names, Mumby's, Archenholds, Balls, Cunliffes, Sunderland, Kendall - Smiths and Harrison. It was an evangelical team, encouraging young lads that if they came regularly to church they could play for the team and partake in the church's Christmas parties and sports days.

Janet has been and is still on the Women's Fellowship committee for more years than she would care to think; and has been involved for many years in the Wednesday luncheon club

Bill and Janet are sidespersons, and Bill is one of the church photographers, an interest which stemmed from his professorial career in dermatology, a very photogenic medical speciality. He and Janet met beside a hospital bed at Manchester Royal Infirmary where Janet was a nurse. Those were the days, working 100 hours per week; including being on call alternate nights and alternate weekends and living in hospital accommodation which had quaint rules, such that you were not allowed to sleep with your wife, but you did get your shoes cleaned daily! Janet had to live in the nurses' home and had to be back by 10 pm!

Would you believe that in the 1960s nurses when they had a child were no longer allowed to work? For 20 years Janet did a lot of medical secretarial work for Bill.

Since Bill retired in 2003 we both worked voluntarily fundraising nationally and locally for the British Skin Foundation. Since 2010 we have been volunteers and patient advocates for the Leeds Dermatology Patient Panel at Chapel Allerton hospital as well as fundraising for the Dermatology Friends of Chapel Allerton Hospital.

Prior to moving to Leeds we lived in Manchester and Newcastle. Janet was born in Gatley - a then, posh suburb of Manchester, and Bill lived in Blackburn and Oswaldtwistle. Janet did not believe Oswaldtwistle existed until Bill proposed.

We enjoy reading, audible books, gardening, walking, TV dramas and sport. Yes, we do confess to liking Downton, Strictly and Leeds United.

We are blessed with three children and seven grandchildren and four grandpets - is there a correct word for pets belonging to children? All three children were regular church attendees, but did not have a good enough voice to join the choir, but they helped at children's services.

We regularly have to remind ourselves just how fortunate we are to have a church like St Giles with great ministers and great parishioners, all of whom help to cement our faith and provide many happy memories, such as the church weekend away at Rydal Hall (if you have not been, you should) and the church social events with Keith's and Marva's marvellous food.

I don't know if anybody managed to read the 30 days suggested reading. If so I hope you have found it a positive experience.

In case you did, here are the readings for June. I look forward to hearing your thoughts on these daily readings.

Louise

Lord, help me to understand what you would say to me, as I read your book, and give me the desire to live according to your teachings.

Amen

A prayer to read before reading from the Scriptures (Gideon's Bible)
