Hello and welcome to the bumper May edition of St Giles Review—we have increased the size of the magazine to 32 pages! This has enabled us to create a space for our younger parishioners: a colouring page for now but all suggestions will be considered.

This month we reflect back on Lent and Easter and I share some of my Lentern challenge (page 23). One challenge I would like you to help me (and the Communications team) with is increasing the readership of the magazine. Costs for printing are calculated on the size of the batch printed, this means we currently order more than are used each month. Do you know a friend or neighbour who might enjoy the magazine or want to find out more about what we do at St Giles? If you do, please ask for a spare copy and a subscription envelope next time you're at church, both are available at the back of church. Please can you let us know so we can follow up any enquiries.

Thank you

From the vicarage

First a thank you to all those who made our Easter celebrations such memorable ones! We really did have joyous celebrations at all our services on Easter Day. A special thank you to the flower arrangers who made our church look even more beautiful than it normally is!

We move on now in our journey through the church's year to Ascension Day on Thursday 25 May. Long gone are the days when schools gave a day off for this church festival and announced the 11+ results on the same day, but their association with the ascending to heaven of our Lord is for ever linked in my mind.

And it seems appropriate, given that the ascension describes the disciples' final period of instruction whilst Jesus was still with them. Jesus is preparing the disciples for their future work. It is a future that will see them declare Jesus as Lord and they are told to declare it to all nations.

And before he ascends to heaven Jesus gives the disciples a promise that he will send the Holy Spirit to fill them with power for the task set before them.

So how did the disciples spend the time waiting for the Holy Spirit? In both versions of the story in Acts 1 verses 1 to 11 and Luke 24 verses 50 to 53 the disciples spend their time in prayer. And the disciples who so often got things wrong, misunderstanding the parables and deserting Jesus at his arrest and crucifixion, in the end, right at the end of Jesus' earthly ministry, the disciples got it right. They passed the test. The disciples did as they were told and stayed in Jerusalem and prayed continually.

And we too await the return of Jesus. We like the disciples are asked to tell people about Jesus everywhere to the ends of the earth.

We are not to stand and stare at heaven whilst we wait for Jesus' return but to act, because Jesus will return. The disciples took that on board and lived and acted as if his return would be at any moment. We are believers today because of the effective witness of the disciples.

So on this Ascension Day will you be having a day off or passing the test, continually praying and witnessing for Jesus, in constant expectation of Jesus' return?

God Bless you

Janice

THE CHILDREN'S SOCIETY

The committee held the AGM on Monday March 6. We sent a total of £5,013.59 to the Society, a slight decrease on last year though the collections at the Christingle Services raised a record amount. The fundraising accounts are displayed on our noticeboard.

We are holding a Bridge Drive at the Craven Institute on Monday June 12, 1pm to 4pm, price £10 includes a light afternoon tea. Tickets on sale now.

PS It is quite alright to put old £5 notes and old £1 coins into your charity boxes before we empty them in November.

MOTHERS' UNION

We had a lovely meeting in March with Janet Richardson and her able assistant, Veronica. Janet's talk was a Lent Meditation interspersed with some appropriate music. This enabled us to think quite deeply about the Easter story and gave us a peaceful hour for contemplation.

We were very pleased to welcome a new member, Mrs Jean Kendall-Smith taking our growing membership to 34. Perhaps you would like to join us and see if we can make a target of 40 in 2017?

On 3rd May we are welcoming Elaine from the NSPCC to speak to us and June will be taking bookings for our Summer Outing to Sedgemere Hall, near Driffeld. We also now have tickets available for the Strawberry Tea on 15th July.

Gill Pinches

WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP

The "History of Shopping" talk, given by Wendy Eccles at the March meeting, was very interesting. Some of the earliest memories were from the time when people opened up their front rooms to sell goods. We were shown interesting pictures such as a very different looking original Sainsbury's store. The May talk is "The History of Snuff" by Jenny Stacey - not sure how many of us still use snuff!!

Maytime Prayers

I set out for you the following Prayers for you to reflect on and use this month.

On the 8th May, the Church celebrates the life, work and writings of Julian of Norwich (?1342-1417) and this is one of her Prayers

God of your goodness, give me yourself, for you are sufficient for me...

If I were to ask anything less I should always be in want, for in you alone do I have all.

On the 20th May, the Church celebrates the life and work of Alcuin of York, Deacon, Abbot of Tours (735- 804) and this is one of his Prayers:

Eternal Light, shine into our hearts,
Eternal Goodness, deliver us from evil,

Eternal Power, be our support,

Eternal Wisdom, scatter the darkness of our ignorance,

Eternal Pity, have mercy on us;

That with all our heart and mind and soul and strength we may seek your face and be brought by your infinite mercy to your holy presence, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the 24th May, the Church celebrates the life work of John Wesley (1703- 1791) and Charles Wesley (1707- 1788), Evangelists and Hymn Writers. The following is a part of one of Charles Wesley's Hymns:

Forth in your name, O Lord I go, my daily labour to pursue,

You, only you, resolved to know in all I think,
or speak or do.

The task your wisdom has assigned o let me
cheerfully fulfil,

In all my works your presence find, and prove your good and perfect will

And this is one of John Wesley's Prayers:

O Lord, let us not live to be useless, for Christ's sake. Amen

The 25th May this year is Ascension Day and so this is a Prayer for Ascension Day.

Almighty God, your Son ascended to the throne of power in heaven, that he might be Lord over all things for his people. We pray that the worship and service of the church may be inspired by his presence, and that he will remain with us always, to the end of the age. Amen

Getting to know...

JOHN & JOY SMITH

Hello Everyone,

We have been married for almost 53 years and lived in Beighton - a mining village just outside Sheffield for 46 of those.

When we first met John played the organ (as he had done since he was 15) at the local Methodist Chapel - his welcoming music for Joy was always "Jesu Joy of Man's Desiring"!

Joy was an Inspector with the Ministry of Pensions, a Magistrate for 32 years and John was a builder and funeral director - Joy's Mum was very impressed by the many bunches of flowers he gave her!! Not sure if she knew where they came from!

John was also a very keen cricketer, opening the batting for Sheffield Collegiate and Derbyshire 2nd team.

We both love music, theatre, sport, walking, photography, our family and friends and our Church life.

After we married we built our own first house, both of us then went to St Mary's Church in Beighton where we were very involved with our son and daughter in the life of the Church - John was organist and choirmaster, accompanied the worship group and both he and Joy were very involved with the building committee and the major re-ordering of the Church and spent many happy hours with lawn mowers in the Church yard, getting to know all the residents there.

Joy organised the church flowers including several flower festivals, was lay assistant, church warden and on the fundraising and social committees.

We were very involved with village life, NSPCC, the village Male Voice Choir and helped to start up an Environment group which went on to win a Gold medal in Britain in Bloom and which started the first Eco School and Church project in Beighton and we somehow managed to be nominated for the Lord Mayor's Roll of Honour - we are now judges for Yorkshire in Bloom.

We are blessed with 6 lovely Grandchildren so 7 years ago we moved to Alwoodley to be nearer our family and love nothing better than spending time with them.

After John had been "Roving Organist" at 6 different Churches in 7 weeks, we needed a spiritual home and when Janice very kindly invited John to be Organist and Choirmaster at St Giles; we were happy to have found it.

Having vowed not to get involved with too many things, John has organised fund raising organ recitals, special music for services and combined Choir oratorios at both St Giles and other churches as well as helping with the planning of the new kitchen.

Joy soon became Lay Assistant, on the DCC, a Deanery Synod rep and involved with church flowers, organising the recent "All Things Bright and Beautiful" flower festival which involved all St Giles lovely flower arrangers, other churches and friends from Headingley Flower Club.

Since coming to St Giles we have been very lucky to find a warm welcome, fellowship and many friends in a warm, caring church, where we love being a part of the music, social events, outreach and worship.

We count our many blessings - our friends, children and grandchildren as we travel along life's highway - thank you for making us feel part of your Church family.

God Bless you all.

John & Joy Smith

As part of the St Giles outreach principles John and Joy regularly visit the Bexley wing at St James' Hospital, where John plays the piano and Joy talks to patients and visitors. This TLC activity is shared with five other pianist teams and has raised over £30,000 for the Yorkshire Cancer Centre Appeal. This is a charity close to my heart, having provided much need funds to support and improve the service for patients, from across the Yorkshire region, undergoing cancer treatment in Leeds. John's beautiful music also provided a welcome moment to pause, reflect and gather one's thoughts between caring for patients. Many patients told how their fear and anxiety was eased, on walking through the entrance doors and hearing John's music drifting down the atrium to greet them.

Should you be visiting the Bexley wing and hear a familiar tune, then you might wish to contribute to the good cause.

“Do not stand at my grave and weep”

MANY years ago, my Father, a Parish Priest, took a funeral at Birkdale Cemetery, Southport. As it happened the funeral was for Nancy's Grandmother. Nancy's Mum, looking down at the coffin in the grave, was understandably upset, and I gather my Father went to her, put his arm round her shoulder and said “Don't cry, she is not there”. Recently these words have come back to me in quite unexpected form.

The last concert sung by Otley & Ilkley Choral Societies featured two requiems, the well-known Faure Requiem (sung in past days here in church by those of us in St. Giles choir), along with The Cantique de Jean Racine. The other was Eternal Light, written by Howard Goodall. Many of us know Goodall for his setting of 23rd Psalm as the signature tune for the Vicar of Dibley. Eternal Light is a requiem which, like Brahms' German Requiem, is intended as a comfort for the bereaved, and written on the 90th anniversary of the battle of the Somme, “in Flanders fields the poppies blow”, with poems reflective of the relationship of the departed with those they left behind. In the 5th section, the ‘Lacrymosa’, which means ‘tearful’, or ‘weeping’, those words of my Father suddenly came back to me, listening to the Baritone soloist, as he sings “Do not stand at my grave and weep, I am not there, I do not sleep”, and again a few lines later, “Do not stand at my grave and cry, I did not die”.

We have again just celebrated Easter and heard the words of the Gospels where Mary finds ‘the gardener’ who asks “Woman, why are you weeping, whom do you seek”, and the other women finding an angel at the empty tomb who says “He has been raised He is not here”. I have just attended yet another funeral, this one with a family connection. But at any funeral as any of us look at the coffin, the grave, or attend the crematorium, I hope those words will come back to us, “I am not there”.

He is risen indeed – Alleluia!

Bryan Bunday

Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sun on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there, I did not die.

The 40 Acts Challenge

This Lent I chose to attempt the 40 Acts generosity challenge. 40 Acts has been running for seven years and is organised by the UK Christian charity, Stewardship. Those who signed up for the Lenten challenge were sent an email each day of Lent, comprising of a verse from the Bible, a Bible-based blog and the act of generosity itself. The blogs were written by various Christians, including Bear Grills, Ram Gidoomal (Fairtrade) and Canon Ann Easter (Chaplain to the Queen) to name a few. All were thought provoking and inspirational in equal measure. The acts varied from donations of time to a good cause to acts of worship and allsorts in between. Some days you were given the choice of three options to complete the act: green, amber or red, being of increasing challenge or generosity.

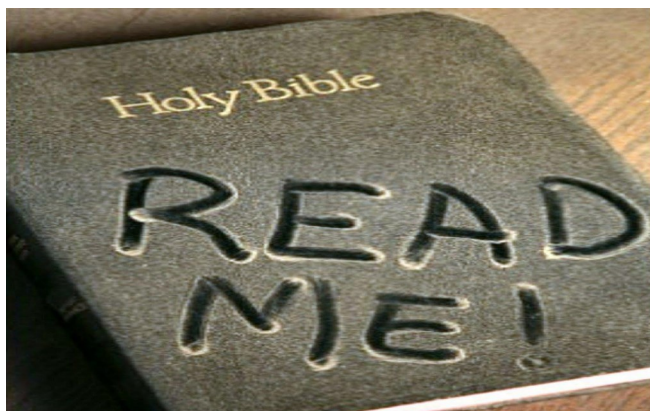

I thoroughly enjoyed reading the blogs; I have to be honest here, some weeks I read five or six on a Saturday morning! And I am still working through them now (one of the challenges was to wash someone's feet – Mikey volunteered but I am afraid he is still waiting – I don't like feet – even his!). Another act was to sign up to fundraise for a charity – Marion and Gill are looking for volunteers for the supermarket collection for Christian Aid week – see page if you would like to join us. For another Mike, Fred and I cleared a section of the loft and took our donations to the Salvation Army. Of course we saved the books for the Men's Supper Club Book Sale!

One of the last acts was to form a habit based upon one of the previous acts. With this in mind and following our discussion about the Bible in the Lent course, I have chosen to try to read from the Bible each day, as I used to when I was first given a Gideon's Bible at school. So I am currently working my way through their suggested 30 days of verses in preparation.

If you would like to join me on this journey, please see page 9 for the list of the first 30 readings.
