November brings Remembrance and not only do we remember those who lost their lives in conflict but those members of our families and friends that are no longer with us. Autumn is our Season of Invitation so do invite people to both our Remembrance Service on 8th November (p19 & p28) and the 'In Loving Memory' service on 1st November at 6.30pm (p19).

Jean Snowball features in the Getting to Know you article on p11. We do hope that you enjoy these articles and don't forget if you would like to take part then let Bill Cunliffe know and he'll give you the necessary information.

Advent (p13) always comes round quickly after Remembrance with all the preparation for Christmas.

Happy reading!

Remembrance Day

Matthew 5:4 Blessed are those who mourn for they will be comforted.

November is the month for remembering those we have loved but see no more, those who were pioneers of the faith and those who have died in the service of our Country.

01 November is All Saints day and we remember the pioneers of our faith who in many cases were willing to put their lives on the line in service of Christ and of others.

01 November we also have on that day a service at 6.30 'In Loving Memory'. It is a special time to remember those we have loved but lost through death. You may have had a recent bereavement or indeed one a long time ago. This service will help you remember your loved one, hold them before God and light a candle in their memory. There will be refreshments after the service.

08 November is Remembrance Sunday and we remember the sacrifices of those who died or were injured during the hostilities of the two world wars and all the conflicts since then. The British Legion, members of the parish council and the uniformed organisations will be attending the 11.20 service at St Giles. This service is open to anyone in the village.

1 Thessalonians 1:2 We always thank God for all of you and continually remember you in our prayers.

Our harvest was a huge success in the amount of food that was brought for the needy, in the large fellowship that shared lunch together, in the numbers of you who came to sing the traditional harvest hymns and praise God for all His gifts .

I would like to thank everyone who contributed to our harvest in any way: those who brought food for the needy, decorated the church, took part in the service, planned and cooked the meal, served and cleared away. It was a real team effort; an effort of the whole fellowship. I want to thank you for your faithfulness to God and his mission here in Bramhope.

There will be another chance to help those who have less. Every year we send to Social services toys new or nearly new for those children who would otherwise not receive anything. Here is part of the letter of thanks from social service for last year's gifts.

'Thanks to your parishes' generosity we were able to provide toys to a variety of children who would otherwise have got nothing or very little at this special time. The children we work with are some of the most vulnerable in our city. They have parents who have learning difficulties, issues with addiction to alcohol and drugs, mental health issues and parents who live in poverty.

Your kindness meant that children who would have been 'without' felt the generosity of strangers; they and their parents were very appreciative. Workers were particularly grateful that the gifts covered an expanse of ages from babies to teenagers.'

Time for Remembrance

If you would like to pay your own personal tribute to the soldiers who died during the First World War, then why not consider participating in a very easy project being run by the British Legion? Not only is it commemorative, but it is one which will yield big results for your garden next year!

It is the Centenary Poppy Campaign, in which the Royal British Legion has joined forces with B&Q to encourage the public and local authorities to plant Flanders poppy seeds on their own land. The Flanders poppy seeds can be purchased from B&Q, where a donation of £1 will go towards the work of the Legion. Just visit your B&Q for more details.

Flanders Fields

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

John McCrae.

"We will remember them"

The years of remembering go by,
Accumulating name after name
As wars and conflicts continue
In a world, deaf to the lessons of history.
But through the negativity of November
A different remembering brings hope and meaning.
Words of the world's creator,
Words to make sense of chaos
And bring order and peace in the end.
"In this world you will have trouble,
But take heart!
I have overcome the world."
Words of Jesus.
We will remember them.

Jean Snowball

I was born in Scarborough where I attended the local convent school. At the age of seven the family moved to Leeds where I was a pupil at Moortown Council School (as they called it in the "olden days"). In 1940 my younger sister and I were shipped off to Buenos Aires, Argentina for the duration of the war to stay with an aunt and uncle, whom we had never met!

Upon our return my education continued at Allerton High School (an all girls' school in those days and about one quarter the size it is now!). This was followed by a secretarial course at the Leeds College of Commerce. I worked with a solicitor (Simpson and Curtis) and later for a consultant paediatrician at the LGI.

I met my husband Ron, a Wearsider from Sunderland, when he moved to the Leeds Office of Northern Electrical Industries. He was educated at Ryehope secondary school and obtained a BSc in electrical engineering at Durham University

We moved to Bramhope in March 1960, six months after our wedding, on to a new estate, along with a lot of newly married couples. When our family came along - Mark, Christina, Nicola - I gave up work until the youngest started school and then worked at the local nursery school. In the early 80's Ron was made redundant along with 1000 other employees so I thought I'd better get a proper job! The company I joined as an administrator supplied schools, clubs, companies etc with embroidered logos which were done on nine headed machines.

Ron did consultancy work for Yorkshire Water until he became ill in 1993 and sadly died in 1995. We have four grandchildren Daniel, James, Ben and Emma but only Daniel, who was four when Ron died, remembers him.

I have been a member of the Young Wives (now The Women's Fellowship) since the early 60's serving as treasurer, secretary and leader. I was a Brownie Guider to the 2nd Bramhope Brownies for 10 years and am now a member of Athill Trefoil Guild (for retired guiders). I am a member of the National Trust, the local history group, the Leeds Museum, the Town's Women's Guild and a volunteer at the Discovery Centre and help with the Wednesday lunches at Church.

I have attended St Giles' since coming to Bramhope, but not always as frequently as at present, where I am a sidesperson, greeter, reader and on the coffee rota.

I never regretted that Ron and I chose to live in Bramhope.

The Message of Advent

'And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in swaddling clothes and laid him in a manger...' (Luke 2:7)

'They will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky, with power and great glory.' (Matthew 24:30)

What a contrast between the humble birth of Jesus in Bethlehem – and his eventual return! No one knows when that day will be, but it will be earth-shaking. In the meantime, Advent reminds us of the last of six great saving actions of God in Jesus Christ.

The Birth of Jesus at Bethlehem was to inaugurate our salvation. The Death of Jesus at Calvary established it – forever. The Resurrection of Jesus at Easter confirmed it. The Ascension of Jesus to heaven celebrated it. The Gift of the Spirit at Pentecost drove it worldwide. And sixthly will come the Return of Jesus at the world's end – to consummate and complete it.

The message of Advent reminds us that history is not circular or locked into an unending stalemate. Neither can we ever accept a notion of successive reincarnations, for the Bible is clear that man is destined to die once, and after that to face judgment (Hebrews 9:27).

The Bible has had many pre-runs of that final 'Day of the Lord.' Noah's flood, the overthrow of wicked Babylon; these and other upheavals were but pointers to the final 'Day of our Lord Jesus Christ' (1 Corinthians 1:8), when all wrongs will be stopped, and the Lord shall reign with justice.

For the Bible is clear that world history is leading to a Conclusion, to the new heaven and the new earth. That will be inaugurated when 'He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.' Christ's return will usher in the final triumph, bringing about the dismantling of the whole apparatus of Evil that has so harassed us across the centuries.

The Cross and Resurrection secured the victory over evil. Christ's return will make it final!

Believers echo Paul's words in 1 Thessalonians 4:17 – 'And so we will be with the Lord for ever.' If we have a strong view of the future, we can be sure it will energise us in the present!

In the meantime, Advent is coming round once again. It's time to celebrate the first of God's six mighty acts that secured our salvation – and look forward to the future.

Richard Bewes

The Promise of Advent

Stir up our hearts, we beseech you,
to prepare ourselves to receive your Son.
When he comes and knocks, may he find us
not sleeping in sin,
But awake to righteousness,
Ceaselessly rejoicing in his love.
May our hearts and minds be so purified,
That we may be ready to receive his promise of eternal life.

It was lovely to see so many members at our October meeting. Mary extended a warm welcome to Marva, June Woodhead, Norma and Ann Marshall. Fortunately they are all now on the road to recovery following spells of illness. We were also pleased to learn that Barbara Hill's husband was recovering well following surgery. Dora Smith was also remembered in our prayers.

Members were reminded that subs are due from November onwards and remain at £18.50.

Our speaker needed no introduction. Janice gave us a very interesting and moving talk on the Power of Prayer following her recent trip to the Holy Land. We were also able to see some of her photographs bringing to life places in the Bible associated with prayer. People's prayers had also played an important part in her life during her recovery from surgery.

It was a very enjoyable afternoon rounded off with a cup of tea and delicious scones kindly baked by Marva.

Our next meeting is on Wednesday 4 November when our speaker will be Beryl Lee who is a Volunteer Support Worker with The Grandparents' Association. Do come and join us - everyone is very welcome.

Members stood at the beginning of the October Meeting to remember Clive Wilkinson who died in hospital on 2nd May. He had been the auditor, latterly the examiner, of the Club's accounts, a yearly task he carried out cheerfully and efficiently.

The speaker was our own member Revd David Kirby, who worked as a locum in a chaplaincy in Switzerland earlier this year. He gave a fascinating and much appreciated account, illustrated with photos taken by Margaret, of their 9 weeks in beautiful surroundings. Not only did he and a local priest conduct services in English and German, but also in French and German!

The next meeting will be on Thursday 12th November. As the external speaker is unable to come, I have stepped in and will reveal the astronomical background to the "Babylonian System", the system I use to determine which one of our seven tables is first at the hatch to collect the dinners for that table!

Circle Dancing

We've been to Nab Cottage overlooking Rydal Water again, for our 2nd weekend this year. Each time, it brings us inspiration, riches of friendship, delights of movement, and simply a joyful time together.

We learnt some of the most beautiful dances I've ever done. My favourite was called NEARBY which was choreographed by Rika Vandevenne from Holland. Rika's son had twins who were born much too early so their lungs weren't properly developed. They were rushed into hospital with pneumonia which was potentially fatal. No-one was allowed to be close to them, and Rika describes her feeling of helplessness as she sat nearby, praying they would survive. (They did.)

All these feelings she put into the dance, and every movement reflects these emotions. It is very powerful.

We repeated the dance so many times, it became part of us and we no longer had to think what came next. That's the point at which the dance becomes part of you, and it's a good experience.

'Baked Alaska'

If you are wondering about the Christian response to the problems of climate change, you will be interested in this touring production which is coming to our area in November.

An island in the South Pacific has a problem – it is hollow! Humanity is living with the unpredictable effects of climate change, even the ducks have relocated – to Bangladesh! This entertaining and 'seriously funny' production shows interacting stories of living with climate change, an issue which affects us all.

The show was commissioned by Christian Aid, Operation Noah and the Diocese of Lichfield as a call to worldwide action. Riding Lights Theatre Company

From the Library Shelf

As I write this it is a time of thanksgiving when we thank God for the harvest and all the good things we have enjoyed over the past year. We have had a great harvest from our own garden; the plums have been especially good, and we've had lots of vegetables too. So we give thanks for that, remembering that for so many people the harvest has been poor, or there has simply been no harvest at all.

The book I am recommending this month is very appropriate for this time of year. It is 'Blessed be our Table' by Neil Paynter. The sub-title is 'Graces for mealtimes and reflections on food'. This is an anthology of graces and prayers of thanksgiving for different occasions and from different traditions. It emphasises the importance of sharing a meal together, using this occasion to give thanks to God for the food we eat and for His creation, remembering our own family and also those in the world who go hungry. An example is a grace in Zulu which translates as:

Creator, we thank you for your love,

Your patience and the gifts you give us.

*We thank you for this food.
Amen.*

This is the sort of book you can browse – open it at any page and you will find something worth reading. It is also good if you need a grace or prayer for a special occasion – you are sure to find something here which will fit the bill.

This is also the time of year for the Alpha course, and our library can be a valuable source of information for participants. Why not take a little time to browse the library shelves and see if there is anything there which will help you with the course?

By the time you read this you read this we will be approaching Advent which begins on 29th November. Don't forget that the library has a collection of books for Advent, and look out for some new titles arriving in November.

Good Reading!

Most popular Bible Stories: Noah

A little boy was listening to the story of Noah's Ark. Suddenly he interrupted: "Where were you in the ark, Grandpa?" His grandfather replied, with some astonishment, that he had not been in the ark at all. That did not satisfy his grandson: "Then why weren't you drowned?"

This month we consider Noah, an example of faith in Hebrews 11:7 'By faith Noah, when warned about things not yet seen, in holy fear built an ark to save his family. By his faith he condemned the world and became heir of the righteousness that is in keeping with faith.' So - what does Noah teach us about faith?

Faith believes God's Word: Noah believed God's warning of judgment on the people of the earth for their violence and wickedness, despite the lack of rain! Are we prepared to trust God's word, even when we can't see the evidence of his working?

Faith loves and serves God: Noah was moved by 'holy fear', like a child who does not want to displease his father. Do we seek to love God with all of our lives?

Faith obeys God in the face of opposition: 'The construction of the ark is the longest, most drawn out test of faith recorded in the Bible' (Oswald Sanders). Noah built a boat 450 feet long, 75 feet wide, and 45 feet high, hundreds of miles from water to the amazement of the people. Is God calling us to step out in faith in a particular area of our lives?

Faith witnesses for God in spite of rejection: Noah was described as a righteous and blameless man who 'walked with God'. As one who lived right with God, he can be called a 'preacher of righteousness' (2 Peter 2:5). What is the witness of our faith to others? Where were the Noah jokes when it started raining?

The Fifth of November

Until fairly recent years 5th November in England was well known for foggy evenings as bonfires were lit all over the country. On many of them a 'guy' would be burnt – usually a couple of old pillows and some cast-off clothes in the rough shape of a man.

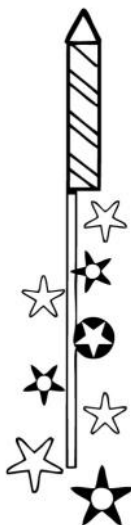

The 'guy' was, historically speaking, Guy Fawkes, one of the chief conspirators in a plot by Roman Catholic zealots to blow up the Palace of Westminster at the State Opening of Parliament on 5th November 1606, thus removing James I from the throne. Fawkes was arrested as he stood guard over a massive collection of gunpowder in an undercroft beneath the House of Lords. Under torture he revealed the names of the other conspirators, and they were hanged, drawn and quartered on 31st January 1607, though Fawkes jumped from the scaffold and broke his neck, thus avoiding the actual execution.

The previous sixty years had seen unprecedented religious strife in England, following the breakaway of the Church of England from Rome under Henry VIII. Hundreds of priests loyal to Rome were hunted down and many put to death, often under the accusation of 'treason'. During the brief reign of a Catholic monarch, Mary, there were many Protestants who were similarly executed. Years of strife, often over verbal definitions, were testimony to the bitterness of feelings which religious conviction can inspire.

There is still plenty of religious strife in the world, as we all know, though little now between different groups of Christians. 5th November might be a good day on which to pray to the one and only God that the world might see an end to the blasphemy of any killing in His Name.

An impulse buy!

An impulse buy which secured the future of one of the country's greatest landmarks marks its centenary.

Stonehenge was sold at auction in September 1915 after local resident Cecil Chubb decided to buy the neglected ruin for £6,000, the equivalent of more than £600,000 today.

Mr Chubb's impulse buy was all the more remarkable for his wife as she had dispatched him to the auction in Salisbury to bid for a set of dining chairs!

Three years later, Mr Chubb donated the monument to the nation in a special handing-over ceremony and received a knighthood – gaining the local nickname of Viscount Stonehenge.

English Heritage is marking the centenary with a series of reenactments of the momentous action.

300 years ago.....

On 24 Nov 1715 (until 9 Feb 1716) the River Thames in London froze over and a frost fair was held.

Start a fire.....

A fire crackling away in the hearth has often been thought of as the 'heart of a home,' and now it seems that it is demonstrably good for your own heart, too. A recent study has found that the flickering flames, combined with the crackle of burning logs and warmth, possess a hypnotic calming effect on people, and lower blood pressure.

Prayer Schedule for Bramhope

We pray weekly, in conjunction with the Methodist Church, for all people living in our area. If you know of anyone who especially needs prayer please pass the details on to Janice or any of the Lay Assistants who will arrange for them to be included on the Prayer List.
