Special notices

Do you want to say a special thank you to someone, have an event you wish to advertise?

Coffee morning held for research into muscular dystrophy

Thank You!

As a family we were astonished at the generosity demonstrated by all those who attended the coffee morning organised by June Pickles. The amazing sum of £710 has been added to the fund-raising which now stands at over £3500. Currently, there are some very encouraging Muscular Dystrophy research projects which could benefit those who encounter this rare condition.

We are grateful to all who contributed so generously. Our special thanks go to June and her team of helpers who worked so hard to ensure the morning was a great success.

Kevin, Jill, Heather and Martin.

PLEASE ask your friends or relations to let us know if you wish for someone to pray with you and/or bring Holy Communion whilst you are ill or in hospital and unable to get to Sunday Worship. In the first instance they should contact the Vicar or Bryan Bunday:

Rev Janice Smith 203 7523, or Bryan Bunday 267 8534

Prayer Schedule for Bramhope

WE pray weekly, in conjunction with the Methodist Church, for all people living in our area. If you know of anyone who especially needs prayer please pass the details on to Janice or any of the Lay Assistants who will arrange for them to be included on the Prayer List.

05/11/17 Old Lane, Occupation Lane, Hilton Court, Grange & Mews

12/11/17 Those from outside the Parish who worship with us

19/11/17 Staircase Lane & Hall Drive

26/11/17 Leeds Road, Ashcroft House, St. Giles Garth & Glenmore Court

Welcome to SGR November!

I must start this issue with an apology—I have omitted to update the Prayer Schedule in the magazine over the last two issues—Thank you to Bryan for kindly pointing this out.

Life is hectic, but exciting at the moment in the Riley house—Lily is in the process of applying to university and so our weekends have involved many motorway miles and tours of various university campuses (or is it campii??). Mikey and I were reminded of our university days and that wonderful sense of a future opening on the horizon.

We have some fascinating contributions from several members of the congregation this month: Julie Tomkins has treated us to one of her fabulous poems, Jonathan Slater describes the Gospel booklet given to soldiers in the First World War and Bill Cunliff gives an account of the successful Education Sunday service held in September, to name a few—Thank you all for your contributions. I hope you enjoy reading the as much as I have.

From the vicarage

Matthew 5:4 Blessed are those who mourn for they will be comforted.

November is the month for remembering those we have loved but see no more, those who were pioneers of the faith and those who have died in the service of our Country.

5 November is All Saints day and we remember the pioneers of our faith who in many cases were willing to put their lives on the line in service of Christ and of others.

5 November we also have on that day a service at 6.30 'In Loving Memory' when we will be remembering those we have loved with a quiet reflective service. It is an opportunity to pray, light a candle and join with others who have lost loved ones. There will be refreshments after the service.

12 November is Remembrance Sunday and we remember the sacrifices of those who died or were injured during the hostilities of the two world wars and all the conflicts since then. The British Legion, members of the parish council and the uniformed organisations will be attending the 11.15 service at St Giles. This service is open to anyone in the village.

1 Thessalonians 1:2 We always thank God for all of you and continually remember you in our prayers.

Our harvest was a huge success in the amount of food that was brought for the needy, in the large fellowship that shared a 'Big Harvest Lunch' together, in the numbers of you who came to sing the traditional harvest hymns and praise God for all His gifts .

I would like to thank everyone who contributed to our harvest in any way; those who brought food for the needy, decorated the church, took part in the service, planned and cooked the meal, served and cleared away. It was a real team effort, an effort of the whole fellowship. I want to thank you for your faithfulness to God and his mission here in Bramhope.

There will be another chance to help those who have less. Every year we send to Social services toys new or nearly new for those children who would otherwise not receive anything.

Social services are always very grateful to receive and distribute these toys which go to children who are the most vulnerable in our city. They have parents who have learning difficulties, issues with addiction to alcohol and drugs, mental health issues and parents who live in poverty.

Your kindness means that children who would have been without, feel the generosity of strangers; the children and their parents are very appreciative.

Thank you from me for your past generosity. Please can I ask you to start sorting out toys and gifts for children from babies to teenagers, new or nearly new, unwrapped please, ready for our toy service on December 10.

May God Bless all who mourn, all who share their plenty with others, all who are connected with our church and all who live in our parish. May you know the comfort and peace that only faith in God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit can bring.

A poem for November

Being a "November Baby" I have always loved this month, even though it tends to get a bit of a negative rap!

I have also always loved Thomas Hood's famous poem "November" but again it does perhaps rather tend to dwell on the more negative aspects of the month!

"NO sun – No moon. No morn – No noon!" is the opening line...and so it goes on,

NO being very much the operative word!

So I thought maybe it was time to put my own positive spin on this very special month that is so close to my heart!

So here goes, "November" given the Julie treatment.

"No sunburnt skin - No buzzing bees.

No airport queues - No "Pollen" sneeze!

No Mad March Winds - No April Showers

No mowing lawns - No pruning flowers.

No traffic jams - No feeling faint

No legs to wax – No toes to paint!

No "Bikini Body" – No "Salad Days"

No Designer Shades – No Summer Haze.

No Barbecues – No charcoal suppers.

No piles of plates – No washer uppers!

No Spring Cleaning – No Christmas Cooking

No washing windows - No-one's looking!

No "Silly Season" – Nothing strange.

No Resolutions – No need to change!

November!"

CHILDREN'S SOCIETY

A reminder that the Box Opening will be on Saturday November 18th in the Church Hall, 12-2pm. stalls include cakes, bric-a-brac, books and Christmas cards and quizzes will be available. Everyone is very welcome. Come and enjoy a soup lunch, get your box emptied and get ahead with buying those Christmas cards. The committee are responsible for assembling 200 plus oranges for the two Christingle Services on Christmas Eve and would appreciate some help from anyone who feels able to, for about an hour probably on Saturday 23rd December in the Church Hall. Please see a committee member and we will let you know what time. Some committee members collected outside Stephen Smiths on Sunday October 1st and raised £142.50. Apple sales raised £40 which can be gift aided. Thank you.

CIRCLE DANCING

Harvest Time is one of our favourite seasons, mainly because there are so many enjoyable and expressive dances to choose from. We can go through the actions of preparing the soil, sowing the seeds, asking for sun and rain. Then revel in the joy of picking the fruits of our labours, and finally showing our gratitude. It is, in effect, a Harvest Festival Service, but in movement instead of words and song. Our intentions and feelings are just the same. Another huge pleasure is the creation of our centre. We all contribute to a rich mixture of mainly wild fruits -- elderberries, sprigs of blackberries, hips and haws, conkers, sweet chestnuts, hazel nuts and acorns..... Also autumn leaves of every colour from green to gold to russet. We end up with a plethora of shapes, sizes, textures and shades of colour. A feast for the eyes, and a reminder of the richness and plenteousness of the world we live in, and the God who created it.

MOTHERS' UNION

Unfortunately our speaker for October failed to arrive but the day was saved by an impromptu talk by Margaret Kirby.

David and Margaret had just returned from a fantastic trip to Armenia – led by Canon Gordon Day.

Armenia may not be on everyone's wish list but from Margaret's account it sounded fascinating, beautiful and steeped in history. Thank you Margaret for saving the day.

MEN'S SUPPER CLUB

Mr Keith Hall gave a talk "A History of Markenfield Nr Ripon – A 14th Century English Country House." He said that the House is now generally rated "the most complete surviving medium-sized country house in England". Its present condition is due to work done to it by the 7th Lord Grantley who was the owner from 1954 and also by his wife. He also said that though Markenfield is recorded in Domesday Book, nothing survives of the earliest house and it is thought that the present building was most likely begun in 1230.

The Markenfield Family were the descendants of a Norman Family called "le Bret". The Markenfield Family (a Catholic Family) lost possession of the house in the 16th Century when they took part in the failed Uprising called "The 1569 Rising of the North". Its aim was to replace Elizabeth 1 with Mary Queen of Scots. Because the uprising failed, the house and its land (some 600 acres) were forfeited to the Crown. More details of the Estate can be found on www.markenfield.com. His talk was well received.

WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP

In September Jenny Platt organised yet another successful Charity Fashion Show. Thanks to Jenny, the willing models, helpers and everyone who supported the event, the ongoing amount raised is £340. This money will be distributed between the Muscular Dystrophy group, a Parkinson charity and the Dermatology Friends of Chapel Allerton Hospital.

The November meeting will be centred on Christmas Decorations

An Active Service John's Gospel

During the First World War, Scripture Gift Mission (now SGM Lifewords) produced an Active Service John's Gospel- it set out the words of the Gospel.

Many copies of the Gospel were issued to soldiers at training grounds, distributed through Charity Tea Huts at the Front, given to wounded soldiers by nurses or handed out by Chaplains.

They were designed to be carried in the front pocket of a uniform, the edges rounded to prevent creasing. Hymns were also included in it so Chaplains could hold services in the field. They included "Son of my Soul Thou Saviour dear", "Eternal Father, Strong to Save", "Abide with me" and "O God Our Help in Ages Past."

The booklet had a message in it from the War Hero Lord Roberts which read as follows "25th August 1914- I ask you to put your trust in God. He will watch over you and strengthen you. You will find in this little book guidance when you are in health, comfort when you are in sickness and strength when you are in adversity".

The booklet also contained a decision form. Men were invited to sign it as a gesture of commitment, for their own assurance as they faced their fears of death.

Decision Forms were also to serve other purposes. When a soldier died his possessions were returned to his family. Many families discovered a signed form, sometimes from a loved one who had never shown an interest in the Christian faith before. In some instances, bodies were recovered that could only be identified by the signed Gospel.

The Decision Form was as follows:

"Being convinced that I am a sinner, and believing that Christ died for me, I now receive Him as my personal Saviour, and with his help I intend to confess him before men,"

"Yet to all who did receive him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God"- John 1. 12."

KEVIN & JILL MCINTOSH

Meeting in 1978 in Tintwistle at the field study centre where Jill worked and Kevin brought his class of Manchester pupils, marrying the following Easter, Jill and Kevin started their married life in a tiny, terraced house in Glossop. After a couple of years they moved to Devon where Kevin gained his first Headship and Jill briefly taught in Dartmoor prison. Their two children, Heather and Andy, were both born in Devon but whilst still young the family moved to Northumberland where Kevin was appointed to amalgamate two first schools. Jill taught science and maths in a middle school and trained as a Samaritan.

When their own children were teenagers Jill and Kevin fostered Desrae who had become homeless through a family breakdown and who lived with them until going to University. Always lovers of the countryside the family bought a static caravan in the Lake District where they walked and birdwatched. They also camped each summer in Somerset at New Wine Christian camp.

Towards the end of his second Headship Kevin began to work with NPQH {National Professional Qualification for Headship} where he helped to train aspiring Headteachers. He loved this work which soon became full time and took him all over England. When Jill gave up teaching they moved to live in Cumbria where Jill trained as a bereavement counsellor and volunteered at the local hospice.

In 2010 Jill's Mum, May, felt she could no longer live independently. Together Kevin, Jill and May came to live in Adel to be near Heather who was about to start her own family. Kevin, Jill and May started worshipping at St. Giles in 2011. They were soon hosting and then leading home nurture groups. Kevin now runs Cats together with Gill and Nick Pinches and Jill is part of the healing ministry team and regularly leads intercessions.

Recently Kevin and Jill have started to work with a Leeds charity that provides emergency accommodation for destitute asylum seekers. So far they have hosted asylum seekers from 11 different countries on a Monday or Tuesday night. They also look after their two grandchildren, Matilda and Daniel on two days a week. If that leaves them any spare time they like to garden, cook and read. And, of course, follow sport – especially beloved Sunderland.

“Love Your Neighbour As Yourself”. Mark 12.31

Highlighting the voluntary good works parishioners do outside the walls of St Giles. Written by Bill & Janet Cunliffe, this edition follows their interview with Hazel Lee...

With this in mind we did some investigation around Hazel Lee’s committee work. Hazel has been Mrs Local committee for over 30 years; she became a member of the Pool in Wharfedale Parish Council in 1983 and in 2001 was elected chairman, a position which she still holds. It is a role which seems fulfilling and challenging, but Hazel has broad shoulders!

As a parish councillor she represents Pool in Wharfedale on various committees, such as the Otley and District Road Safety Group who organise jointly with the

Love thy neighbour

Department in Leeds, a Junior School Road safety quiz each year

The Old Pool Bank Village Hall Management Committee of which she is the chairman is very close to her heart. As a child she helped to build the village hall. We discovered that this is a long story, but if you would like to hear the fascinating history of the whole just ask Hazel.

On the West Yorkshire Transport Committee Hazel is known as the Mrs X 84. Yes, you can guess her main complaints.

Hazel also does work for the Royal British Legion in Pool and Bramhope, and for 16 years has organised a service in Pool, each Remembrance Sunday.

From the library shelf

It's November, the days are getting shorter, and soon it'll be time to alter the clocks and begin the season of short days and long nights. I do not enjoy this, and I must start telling myself that it's only 2 months until the days start getting longer again!

It's not all doom and gloom though. Dark evenings invite you to begin reading that book which you meant to read on holiday, but never got around to. Or maybe you have started the Confirmation course and want to find out a bit more about Christianity. We have lots of books that can help with this. Maybe it's time to have a look at our Church Library and perhaps borrow a book or two.

We have several new additions to the library. A copy of the book that Janice reviewed on Page 13 of the August edition of the St. Giles Review - 'Prayers, Texts and Tears' by Dai Woolridge - is now in the library. It is well worth reading. Also, we have been given a splendid donation of several books, and these will be appearing on the shelves in the next few weeks.

The Library recently received a compliment from a visitor to our Church, who remarked on what a good selection of books we have. This is of course music to a librarian's ear, as it makes the job seem worthwhile. It also prompts me to say that I wish that more people used the library!

And that brings me to my annual request for feedback from you – it is after all your library. What so you think of our library? Are there things you think we should change about the library? What kind of books you would like to see there? If there is a book you think we should have, please let me know and I will do my best to get a copy. All comments and suggestions are welcome and I look forward to hearing from you. You can email me at e.s.grahame@gmail.com or catch me at coffee after the morning service.

Good Reading.

Education Sunday

Education Sunday is a national day of prayer and celebration for everyone involved in the world of education. For more than 100 years there has been an annual recognition of Education Sunday in England and Wales (traditionally on the ninth Sunday before Easter). However since 2016 it has moved to a fixed date in September.

This year Education Sunday was on Sunday September 10. The theme was “Gathered in my Name”. This was celebrated at the morning service where attendance was very impressive. The church was almost full, with 27 children, parents, grandparents and other regulars. There was a good cross-section of all ages, even though the focus was more on the younger element of education attendees.

There was considerable involvement by the children: Zoe and Emily did the reading Luke 2 41 - 52—Jesus in the temple; Charlotte and Joshua did the opening readings (see box).

A further five children read the prayers; children were also involved in collecting the week’s offerings.

Instead of the sermon, Janice interviewed the headmistress of Bramhope Primary School, Mrs Rachel Colbourn. This worked really well, with Mrs Colbourn considering the importance of working closely with and valuing the contributions of families, teaching and praying in an environment based on mutual respect where everyone is valued, empowering our children to take an active role in society and make a positive contribution.

We also learnt a lot about Mrs Colbourn and her interesting life starting in Wakefield, to Bramhope via interesting places including Oman where she was based for nine years. Her journey into teaching was triggered at an early age by an enthusiastic, dynamic English teacher.

Towards the end of the service most of the children, wearing backpacks, met with Janice at the bottom of the aisle where she blessed the children and their backpacks for this academic year

Charlotte read: Jeremiah 29:11 New International Version (NIV)

<sup>11</sup> For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the Lord, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.

Joshua read: 2 Timothy 3:16-17 New International Version (NIV)

<sup>16</sup> All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, <sup>17</sup> so that the servant of God<sup>[a]</sup> may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.

The songs had a theme of Jesus's teaching and were enthusiastically sung by the congregation led by Andrew and the band.

Remember, remember... that's the buzz word for November! All Saint's Day and Remembrance Sunday are special days for people who have served God and our country. We will also be remembering people who are important to us.

Draw a picture of someone who is important to you, in the picture frame below... don't forget!
