Thank You!

COFFEE AND CAKES SUPPORTING DANIEL

On a very wet Wednesday morning on 23rd August over 50 people turned out with brollies and raincoats to raise funds for research into muscular dystrophy. £710 was raised at a coffee morning which was prompted by the recent diagnosis of this condition relating to Daniel, the grandson of Jill and Kevin McIntosh.

I would like to say a big thank you to all who contributed in making this event such a success and also to those who were unable to attend but sent such generous donations.

June Pickles

PLEASE ask your friends or relations to let us know if you wish for someone to pray with you and/or bring Holy Communion whilst you are ill or in hospital and unable to get to Sunday Worship. In the first instance they should contact the Vicar or Bryan Bunday:

Rev Janice Smith 203 7523, or Bryan Bunday 267 8534

Prayer Schedule for Bramhope

WE pray weekly, in conjunction with the Methodist Church, for all people living in our area. If you know of anyone who especially needs prayer please pass the details on to Janice or any of the Lay Assistants who will arrange for them to be included on the Prayer List.

06/08/17 Creskeld Lane, Creskeld Park & Breary Lane East

13/08/17 High Ridge Way, Kings Road & Kings Drive

20/08/17 The Sycamores & Sycamore Close

27/08/17 The Birches, The Cedars, The Rowans, The Poplars & Sandy Walk

Well the new school term has started, the students are returning to university and the nights are pulling in. Soon the leaves will be turning beautiful shades of red, gold and amber. Autumn is my favourite month! New starts, cosy evenings and all sorts of celebrations to look forward to attending.

High on that list is Harvest Festival and the infamous Harvest Lunch. Fred managed to wangle himself an invite last year, we as usual had not been organised enough to buy tickets in time. We won't make that mistake this year. I hope it doesn't clash with one of the many university open days we will be attending over the coming weeks...

Margaret and David Kirby have kindly written a very informative article about foodbanks and our harvest collection supporting this sadly vital service to those in great need.

New for this month, and continuing our thought on caring for others, is our 'Love thy neighbour' article. This series of articles by Bill and Janet Cunliffe, celebrate the good works of fellow parishioners: voluntary activities people are involved in outside of St Giles.

The eagle eyed amongst you may notice the slightly larger font size of the articles. This has been increased in response to feedback from readers. I hope this makes for an easier read.

From the vicarage

Come ye thankful people come

Harvest time again a time to give thanks, a time to bring gifts for others, a time to harvest.

A time to give thanks – there are two opportunities to join us for special events on that day

10.30am everyone is invited to our Harvest Service where we will sing the traditional and not so traditional harvest songs to worship and praise God.

6.30pm our harvest celebrations will continue with a celebration of Holy Communion with yet more harvest hymns.

A time to bring gifts for others – this year Reverend David Kirby asked if we could help the Leeds South and East Foodbank where he and his wife Margaret volunteer. The services of the foodbank are well used so much so that they are running out of food. These food gifts are distributed to some of the most vulnerable and needy people in our society. Please give generously. Full details of goods required on our web site stgilesbramhope.org.uk

A time to be a family – for many years now we have joined together as a family for our harvest meal together; this is at lunchtime (midday) on the 8 October. It is a three course lunch with good food, good company and some of our children will entertain us by playing their musical instruments. Everyone is welcome contact Keith for tickets on 07920139172.

A time to harvest – Jesus uses many stories of sowing and harvesting to illustrate the kingdom of heaven. The parable of the Sower talks about seed grown in different kinds of soil and the abundant harvest that the good soil gives. As you know he is not referring to plants but people and their faith. Or do you know? Do you know what the stories or parables of Jesus mean? Do you understand why Jesus came to earth to tell us about his Father God? This autumn we are running a confirmation course where you can explore the Christian faith and decide whether you wish to be confirmed.

For those of you who have not been confirmed and wish to consider this I am currently running two separate courses for adults and young people. Bishop Paul will be coming on the evening of 19 November at 6pm. If you or a member of your family want to join in please contact me.

So wherever your faith is planted there is an opportunity for you to bring your thanks and praises to God and even add a little fertiliser!

In loving memory service

The loss of a loved one is hard to bear and the time before and after a loved one dies is often busy with arrangements and seeing family and friends. The day of the funeral may be unreal and busy.

Each year we hold a service to remember those whom we have loved and see no more. It is a quiet reflective service to remember, to light a candle and pray and give thanks for the days which have gone and look at the days to come in which we seek God's love and support.

This year the service is on 5 November at 6:30 pm in church. No matter how short or long a time it is since you lost your loved one you will find this a very helpful service. Please join us.

CIRCLE DANCING

We started our dancing again last Tuesday after our August break. All of us were so pleased to be back together again to do some of our favourite dances. We did Edelweiss which has now become one of our favourites since we learnt it in Austria in June. We had our longer than usual sharing of our news sitting in the cosy corner in the hall, hearing about all the amazing places we'd visited during the summer, and the latest news of our families. This is what brings us close together.

On Monday, September 11, some of us did an evening of Circle Dancing for Billing Trefoil Guild at Horsforth Central Methodist Church. We showed them how to do several simple but meaningful dances. We brought it to an end with our Blessings Dance, and I believe in Angels, and lastly I Offer you Peace from Karl Jenkins Peacemakers. Oh what a joy music and dancing are!

MOTHERS' UNION

Despite Wednesday 6 September being a bit chilly and grey we were transported into the colourful world of our feathered friends. Jean Weatherill gave us a fascinating talk on birds. Not only did she bring some lovely books and photographs but she burst into song as well. Jean reminded us how birds feature in our everyday life – they are mentioned in the Holy Bible, hymn books, songs, films and public house names. I am sure we all like to see birds in our gardens but we couldn't possibly compete with Jean who has travelled by land, sea and air to pursue her birdwatching hobby.

Some prayers for October

Father in heaven, all good gifts come from you. You send the sunshine and the rain and it is through your love and care that we can enjoy harvest time. Thank you for providing so richly for our needs and help us to share the good things we have with those who have little or nothing.

Lord we pray for your blessing on every kind of harvest we enjoy. Thank you for the harvest of the land and sea. Bless too the harvest of factory, mine and workshop. Bless the harvest of research and of creative art. May we work together with you in every area of life to produce what is worthwhile, good and fruitful. May you be glorified in it all.

Author Unknown

The seed is Christ's,
The granary is Christ's;
In the granary of God
May we be gathered.
The sea is Christ's,
The fishes are Christ's;
In the nets of God
May we all meet.

A Prayer from Ireland

Bring to fruition, Creator God, the work of your kingdom.

Make us part of that joyful harvest in which your loving purpose is completed.

Help us to realise how important the smallest words and deeds are in the context of eternity.

At harvest time, when we remember your goodness make us grateful also for all we have received from the labour of others who have sown the seeds of faith, hope and love in our lives.

Author Unknown

And lastly a Prayer from Singapore for you to ponder and to pray

God stir the soil,
Run the ploughshare deep,
Cut the furrows round and round
Overturn the hard, dry ground,
Spare no strength nor toil,
Even though I weep.
In the loose, fresh mangled earth
Sow new seed
Free of withered vine and weed
Bring fair flowers to birth

Getting to know...

I was born in Hyde Terrace maternity home in 1937, making me the youngest of the St Giles 80 year old Babes, and subsequently lived at Old Pool Bank with my parents, Sally and Bill Lancaster. Schooling was at the orphanage (now Hilton Grange) as an “outsider”. I passed the 11 plus exam to attend Prince Henry's, which at the time was just a stone building.

My first job was at the Yorkshire Electricity Board's head office located in Bramhope (now Manor Close) before they moved to offices in York Place in the city centre. This was a good move as this is where I met my lovely husband Bob. For the first seven years of our married life we lived in Yeadon where our daughter, Valerie Ann, was born (Val regularly reads the prayers and helps at Communion).

I was confirmed at St Giles during the reign of the then vicar, Reverend Bairstow. The joint confirmation event was celebrated with a similar group at Harewood Church.

For many years I have served on the Pool - in- Wharfedale Parish Council, Old Pool Management Committee, West Yorkshire Transport Committee and the local Royal British Legion Committee and Otley and District Road Safety Committee. I have always had a great interest in the performing arts and have performed in many plays with the Overdale Players and the Electricity Players at the Civic Theatre, now a museum in Leeds.

Since Bob's death, singing has filled a huge hollow. For the past 19 years I have sung with a large choir - Sing Live now called the Inspiration Choir.

I have sung in the Royal Albert Hall and on Mediterranean cruises, the Epcot Centre in Florida, Disneyland in Paris, Henley Festival, Leeds Town Hall, Bridgewater Hall and the Edinburgh Festival to name but a few. The joy I get from singing is wonderful. Singing with the choir at St Giles gives me great support in my worship, although I sometimes struggle at Evensong with the chants.

In the church circle I regularly attend a whole variety of services and for the past five years I have been a deputy warden. For many years I have been actively involved with the Women's Fellowship, of which I am currently the chair; I am grateful for the great support from fellow committee members.

Consistent Award Winning Customer Care

“Love Your Neighbour As Yourself”. Mark 12.31

This new section of the magazine is aimed to highlight the voluntary good works parishioners do outside the walls of St Giles. Written by Bill & Janet Cunliffe, following their interview with Sue Gamble...

Recently, we found Sue Gamble beyond the comfort zone of Bramhope, in Eccup at the Donkey Sanctuary where Sue Gamble has been doing voluntary work one day a week for the last seven years.

The Donkey Sanctuary provides riding therapy for children as well as being a refuge home for up to 23 donkeys who themselves are disadvantaged either due to age or abuse. It is a win-win situation for the children, staff, parents, donkeys and volunteers like Sue. Children who attend the sanctuary get much benefit by riding the donkeys or if the child is too large, then walking the donkeys.

Love thy neighbour

The activities are under the supervision of the staff or trained volunteers with up to 3 donkeys being involved at any one time.

Sue finds that the riding physically helps the children to build their body core, stretching and coordination. Occasionally some children do not improve, but enjoy the moment in this caring environment. Over time most children improve their educational skills and relationships between themselves, school teachers and parents.

I appreciate each day as it is a bonus. Some years ago when I was working in the Old Pool Bank Post Office we were robbed. The loaded gun was pointed at me whilst they carried out the raid. When the police asked for information and details I described the accomplice as wearing a white scarf, knit 4, purl 4. This made them smile. The next smile came from the account in the Yorkshire Evening Post describing the postmaster and his middle age assistant held at ransom. Later when I asked the reporter if it could be altered to a glamorous lady assistant she declined as it would have got less sympathy.

My life is very busy and interesting. I am blessed with a lovely daughter and excellent friends and God has been good to me; in particular, I thank the many parishioners who give me lifts to and from church

Foodbanks and our Harvest collection 2017

“Lord, when did we see you hungry... ?”

I guess most of us are aware how fortunate we are to live in Bramhope. But across our fair city there are some really significant differences in life expectancy, and other markers of the quality of life.

Did you know, ladies, that life expectancy for women in Wharfedale and Adel ward is 86.5 years? But the life expectancy for women in the City and Hunslet ward is only 76.1 years. Now ladies don't live 9 years longer because they live in Bramhope and not in Hunslet! The difference, of course, is because of all sorts of socio-economic factors to do with life style, housing, diet, employment – or lack of it. Did you know that 20% of the population of Leeds live in the 10% most deprived areas in England?

So it's not surprising that in these times of austerity, folk in some parts of the city are facing real difficulty. Not everyone, of course, but for some it really is a choice between putting food on the table or paying the rent. In 2016-17, Leeds Foodbanks gave out emergency food parcels, sufficient for three days to feed almost 16,000 people in crisis. Some were for families, some for single people – the figures hide the fact that of those 16,000 people, over 6,000 were children.

The Leeds Foodbanks operate under the aegis of the Trussell Trust. To qualify for a food parcel, individuals have to be referred by persons like a social worker, clergy, a doctor, probation officer, Council One Stop Centres, Citizen Advice Bureau, or other responsible bodies. People can't just walk off the street and ask for a handout. Foodbanks are essentially for people in crisis, it's not Morrisons for free! And recipients can only ask for help on three occasions in a six-month period.

Because Leeds is so big, the city has been divided into two halves – Leeds South and East and Leeds North and West. There are 19 distribution centres, mainly in churches or council properties, all staffed by volunteers. Leeds South and East has a warehouse in Hunslet and 11 distribution centres each open for a couple of hours a week, spread across the city from Drighlington to Seacroft, and taking in inner urban areas like Hunslet and Barmantofts.

Food is donated by the general public, including churches – Harvest Festivals, like ours, are a very important source during the autumn! Big supermarkets like Asda and Tesco are also very helpful. Some have a collection basket in store from which donations of food can be taken to the warehouse on a regular basis. Once or twice a year, Asda and Tesco stores allow special collections when volunteers from the Foodbanks are present in the store and ask shoppers to help by buying particular canned or dry goods and donating them as they leave. A day's collection can yield up to 500 kg of food stuffs – but that can be distributed by a couple of busy centres in a week!

Messy Church

What is Messy Church?

- ♣ Messy Church is a way of being church for families involving fun.
- ♣ Messy Church is a form of church for children and adults that involves creativity, hospitality and celebration.
- ♣ Currently there are 3782 churches in the UK and the world to help families find out about the stories of God and His Son Jesus.
- ♣ A typical session of Messy Church is that there is a welcome, a creative time to explore the biblical theme through crafts and getting messy; a short celebration time involving a story, prayer and a song, then we do what do best—EAT together, then games.
- ♣ Messy Church helps families to grow no matter what type of family they are, nuclear, extended, church or global.

We meet regularly our meeting dates for this year are over the page.

What Messy Church Isn't

- ♣ ...just for children. It can and does involve all ages.
- ♣ ...a club. It welcomes everyone, values everyone, is always for the outsider because it is an integral part of our church.
- ♣just for families—all are welcome single, widowed, childless. Church is inclusive not exclusive.

Messy Church at St Giles

The leaders are Janice Smith and Suzannah Hattersley, supported by a large team of volunteers without whom we cannot function. People are needed to prep the crafts, lead crafts on the day, play music, play games, prepare and serve food, clear away.
